Plan Improvement Association For Wd. 1

Meeting of Residents

About 25 residents of Ward 1, in-terested in having Boyd Park, Jack-son road and other sections of that Ward improved, assembled in Bay State Hall on Thursday evening, Oc-tober 23rd, and took preliminary steps to organize an improvement association. William Sproat of Thornton street was chosen temporary chairman street was chosen temporary chairman of the organization and A. Charles Dunn of Pearl street was elected temporary secretary. The chairman was authorized to appoint a committee of five who will draw up a constitution and by-laws. A committee will also be appointed to canvass various streets in the Ward and obtain members for the association.

bers for the association.

Invitations had been sent to the three aldermen from the Ward to attend the meeting. Alderman William E. Earle was on a business trip to the western part of the State but sent a letter in which he stated that he had not decided whether he will be a candidate again for Alderman or a candidate for Mayor, but should he run for either office and be elected, he will use his influence to have Boyd Park improved and the brook along Jackson road covered.

Alderman Powers told of the re-

Park improved and the brook along Jackson road covered.

Alderman Powers told of the requests which have been made for a number of years by people in Ward 1 to have the brook through Boyd Park covered so that the playground there can be properly improved and the place made safe for children. A number of little ones have had narrow escapes from drowning and mothers are afraid to allow small children to go to this playground. The remainder of Laundry Brook, from Bullough's Pond to Jackson road has been covered, extensive improvements have been made on brooks and playgrounds in other parts of the city, but nothing has been done to relieve the unsightly, unsanitary and dangerous situation caused by the open brook along Jackson road and through Boyd Park. Improvement associations and clubs in other sections of the city have powerful influence when they make requests on the City Government, and a strong organization formed by Ward 1 citizens should be a potent factor in procuring proper consideration for these long needed improvements in that section.

Miss Julia M. Enegess of Fayette street referred to the many futtle requests which have been made to have the approaches to Boyd Park made safe and the park itself properly cared for. Miss Margaret H. McDonald of Gardner street told of the children not being allowed to coast in the park winters because of the open brook there. Mrs. Katherine Tobin of Jackson road called attention to the danger the open brook brings to small children when it is flooded after heavy rains, to the fact that the brook has not been properly cleaned in recent years, or the grass on its banks kept mowed.

James P. Aikins, Jr., of Lewis street, candidate for Alderman-at-Large from Ward I was introduced and assured those present that if elected, he will do all in his power to have the desired improvements made at Boyd Park and Jackson road.

George Safford of Boyd St, stressed the need of improving Jewett streets between Gardner and Boyd streets. Joseph Campbell told of the filthy condition of Laundry Brook at Boyd Park playground.

Walter Jenkins and Charles Dunn spoke of the condition of the north sidewalk on Pearl street, between Jewett and Gardner street. Others who discussed conditions in the district were Miss Martha Lovely, Michael J. Keating, Joseph Gildea, Joseph (Continued on Page 3)

Hold First Of Series Of Banking Lectures Salary To $5000 At Special Session

For the convenience of women de-positors living on the north side of the city, the second series of lectures, arranged by the Newton Trust Com-pany and the First National Bank of Newton at West Newton, is being held at Temple Hall, Newtonville.

Mrs. S. Hardy Mitchell presided at the first meeting held Wednesday morning at 10.30. She stated that if the demands were sufficient the banks would run another series of lectures after Christmas at the Newton Centre Woman's Club.

The speaker of the morning was T. Raymond Pierce, assistant vice-presi-dent of the Old Colony Trust Company. His subject was "Investments."

His subject was "Investments."

Mr. Pierce prefaced his talks by alluding to the cataclysm in Wall street, where, during the past week, the hrinkage in money values has equalled the national debt. He likened the havoc there to the conditions which prevalled in New Hampshire and Vermont after last year's flood. A wild desire to get money without work or care has brought many investors to a sad state. It is a time when those who have been preaching conservative investments feel justified. If the average woman would take finances as seriously as she does her domestic and social responsibilities conditions would be improved.

Alderman W. E. Earle Announces Candidacy

Chairman of Public Works Commit

The following statement has been received by the GRAPHIC from William E. Earle of 18 Maple avenne, Newton, who has served as Aldermanat-Large from Ward 1 during the past eight years.

"Shortly after Mayor Edwin O. Childs issued the statement that he would not be a candidate for re-election as mayor this fall many of my friends approached me in regard to running for that office. I stated that I would give the matter earnest consideration.

I would give the matter earnest consideration.

During the past few weeks, especially since my letter of October 9, stating my position, I have seen requested by so many people from all over our city to enter the contest for Mayor, that I have decided to become a candidate.

The citizens of Newton have followed my work as chairman of The Public Works Committee of the Board of Alderman for the past six years. They have noted the unfolding of a progressive program of public development and improvement. They know that this policy has been one for the development of the city as a whole without fear or favor of anyone. They desire it to continue.

They feel that my election to the office of mayor of this City will assure them of a continuation of this work and of the Open-Door Policy of our present Mayor, whereby every man, woman, and child in the city has an equal opportunity."

SOMERVILLE SCORES IN FINAL PERIOD

Newton high's Suburban league hopes went glimmering in the final period of the game with Somerville at Dilboy field last Saturday when the Dickerman coached outfit scored twice in the final session of the locals' third league encounter. Eddie Martins, Somerville ace kicked two points after the touchdowns to set the score at 14 to 0. Martins also was the outstanding player in the game, he scored one of the touchdowns, aided materially in the scoring of the other, and time after time made substantial gains, either alone or in combination with Francis Escott on lateral passes. Escott tallied the second touchdown on a 35-yard romp through the Newton tackle when his line opened up a hole for him and he cleverly evaded the Newton secondaries. The sole bright spot in the Newton eleven was the defensive play of the line until late in the game when it wearied of its efforts and Somerville had the stuff to crash through. The Newton backfield tried valiantly but accomplished little either on the offense or the defense. On the offense the interfering backs failed to carry out their assignments in taking out the Somerville tacklers and consequently the ball carrier was often nailed before he could get going. On the defense the Somerville ball carriers would carry the Newton backs along with them for several extra yard gains. Newton high's Suburban league

Hamilton, starting at fullback for Newton, ran the kickoff back 15 yards to his 30-yard line. On fourth down Elrod kicked with Linberg downing the ball at the Somerville 35. Wells fumbled but recovered for an eight yard loss and on the next play ran the end for 14 yards. He then kicked to the Newton 37-yard line. On the second play Litchfield fumbled and Wells recovered on the Newton 40-yard stripe. Somerville failed to gain and Litchfield intercepted Wells' pass on the Newton 25-yard line. Elrod and Hamilton, the latter carrying twice, made a first down. The drive failed to keep moving and Elrod kicked to Martins on the Somerville 32-yard line. Martins ran the end for a nineteen yard gain until Elrod pushed him outside. A lateral from Escott to Martins was good for another 19-yards and a second first down on the Newton 30-yard mark as the period ended.

Second Period

Somerville relied on Martins who carried three times at the Newton tackles for a net gain of seven yards. Martins pass to Moran, who relieved Wells, was incomplete and Newton took the ball on downs on their 25-yard mark, averting a score. A noff side penalty set the orange and black further back and Hamilton's end run lost two yards more. Elrod's kick against the wind was short and Escott took it on the Newton 30-yard mark. Linberg and Hamilton held Escott to four yards in two rushes at tackle and two incomplete passes gave Newton the ball again. Elrod kicked to midfield where Martins fumbled. Frechette grabbed for the ball but fumbled it also and Martins finally recovered it. On the second play martins started an end run and when Bankart missed the tackle for a reversed his field and came around the other end for an apparent first down, but Somerville had been holding and the ball was brought back with the offenders drawing a 15-yard penalty. In the Army game he and Bowman of the West Point team crashed head-on and the blow took a lot out of the Newton lad and completely floored Bowman. As there was hardly a half a minute left to play, the next play would undoubtedly be Country Day's last. It was fourth down and three yards to go for a first down on the two yard-line. Captain Bottomley, decided to try a short pass over the line to Greene, as he straddled the goal-line, absolutely uncovered. ALDERMEN VOTE TO INCREASE MAYOR'S SALARY so that when his term of service is completed, he can go back to his old occupation. We are not correcting this situation by adding $2,000 to the mayor's salary. It seems inevitable that the mayor's position will still remain a half time job.

"Being the executive head of Newton is a substantial undertaking. The requirements of a large and rapidly growing city are too great for an executive to make it a half time position. Newton should have, and deserves, a full time executive. Few businesses have prospered whose executives have been on half time. There is little doubt that those that have would have done still better had they received the executive from the time that they received the executive full attention.

"We should give serious consideration to this matter. If the only feasible way to obtain a full time executive to administer the affairs of the City is for Newton to employ a city manager, I am in favor of that action. The position of the mayor should remain honorary, for only in rare cases can he devote one hundred per cent. of his time to the City's affairs. He should be a citizen who has been outstandingly successful in his chosen field. He should be the executive responsible for the general policies of the City. The active executive should be a well-paid, well-trained administrator of municipal affairs who devotes his entire time, attention and energy to the welfare of Newton."

A vote was then taken on the question and it was carried. Those voting in the affirmative were Aldermen Bail, Collins, Earle, Gallagher, Gordon, Grebenstein, Jamieson, Powers, Pratt, Smith, Temperley, Woodcock. The Aldermen voting in the negative were—Bowen, Floyd, Harte, Hawkins, Holbrook, Murray, Prior, Weeks and Worth. Alderman Temperley then moved for reconsideration, hopping his motion would not prevail. The motion to reconsider was lost.

Among the matters mentioned were—the need of a policeman to warn traffic at Pearl and Thornton streets when the small children are entering and leaving the Lincoln School; the failure of the traffic signal at the end of Thornton street to slow down speeders on Pearl street; the lack of attention paid by autolsts to the warning traffic signals at Jewett and Pearl streets and Jewett and Waban streets; the failure of the city to provide a crosswalk for pedestrians from Centre avenue bridge towards Channing street, the present walk being a joke; the restriction of parking to one side of Emerson street; the need of more and better street lights on Thornton street so that this street will be properly illuminated as Channing street has been; the lack of a traffic officer at Pearl and Watertown streets, where children from three schools cross; the menace presented by an electric light pole on Thornton street which for nearly a year has been propped up on the sidewalk, fastened to another pole.

Mr. Sproat was authorized to arrange for another meeting during the week starting November 3. It is planned to hold a meeting before the city election at which candidates for office will be invited to be present.

NEWTON ELEVEN IN HARD STRUGGLE

Philip Layton, Norman Appleyard. Ernest Hamiton and "Bucky" Shorten are the backfield replacements expected to see service. Should the orange and black eleven hold Medford without a score it will be a big feather in their caps. Medford takes on Waitham a week from tomorrow in one of the outstanding football games of the year and so tomorrow's Claffin Field contest may furnish some comparison for the game on Nov. 16th with the Watch City outfit.

They will be eligible to compete for Newton a fast finish to place ahead of an Arlington runner last week, showing that he has the stuff and if he can hold a little faster pace tomorrow he will be in the running to the finish. In tomorrow's meeting the first five runners of each team figure in the point scoring. Gordon Sidebotham, who is a member of the junior varsity football team as well, did not run against Arlington. He is expected to provide the balance to the Newton team that will give it five runners finishing fairly well bunched, the necessary factor in a cross-country team race.

Coach Donald Enoch of the Newton high school track teams has put in considerable time this fall training and coaching a group of athletes in cross-country running. The orange leven tomorrow.

Handicapped from the start by lack of veteran material, much depleted by the passing of the so-called "three-year" rule, and still further limited by loss of several good prospects through injury the local coaches have had most difficult time. Following the reversal at the hands of Somerville last week when the ends and backs displayed weakness on both the offence and defence Ccaches Sullivan and Consodine have put in a great amount of work with them.

Harold Andres enjoyed a couple of days' rest the middle of this week following a slight strain on Tuesday afternoon. He was in uniform but did not take an active part in the drill Coach Cannell sent the team through.

Win Letters

Dartmouth awards letters to those playing one full period in the Harvard game as a result of which thirteen Green athletes win the coveted honor. Green athletes win the coveted honor. Nine of these had already received their "D" last year including Harold Andres and Len Clark, two of the local lads on the squad. Although Henry Johnson got into the game in the final period he did not play enough time to win his letter but it is expected that he will join the select ranks before the season ends. All three will be available for the team next year as will several other stars which should give Coach Cannell encouragement for another season.

Boston University has started hockey practice. Coach Wayland Vaughan, former Newton. Andover and Yale star, called the candidates to the Arena Wednesday night. Among several veterans to report was Holmes Whitmore, sophomore star wing 'ast year, who formerly was an outstanding performer on several Newton high championship sextets. Whitmore should enjoy a good year, barring injury, and looks like one of the outstanding college players.

The Newton City Club defeated the Charlestown City Club last Sunday on Cabot Park gridiron, 19 to 0. All of the scoring was done in the first half by R. Sullivan, W. Sullivan and Walker, each making a touchdown. Bill Sullivan added one point with a goal after touchdown. This week Sunday the local eleven will take on the undefeated and unscored on Mansfield Town Team at Mansfield. Due to lack of support the City Club has been forced to book most of its remaining games away from home. ABOUT TOWN Ordinarily "Youth Must Be Served Ordinarily "Youth Must Be Served" but the exception to the rule happened Tuesday when A. J. Ford and Ernest Gibson defeated two much younger golfers in a foursome at the Albemarle Club by 1 up. The vanquished, Roy Randall and "Tom" Hackett of Watertown yielded to the tremendous drives of Mr. Gibson and the accurate putting of Mr. Ford.

A little white dog with brown spots, only a mongrel, but somebody's pet, wandered on to the Boston & Albany tracks opposite the Newton station Monday afternoon and was hit by the express bound from New York to Boston. His hind legs were mangled but he managed to drag himself from the tracks and onto the bank beyond the depot. Patrolman Ray Taffe was notified and ended the little dog's sufferings with a well directed shot. During the last week or so the lambs have not only been sheared but skinned alive. Supposedly devilish young men who pull false alarms, jeopardizing the lives of firemen and leaving the city without fire projection, are either nearmorons, tin-horn heroes showing off, or just plain cowardly sneaks who have not enough "sand" to get their thrills by performing some stunt in the open and in the light of day. Just so long as judges will merely fine these pikers when they are caught, just so long will false alarms be pulled in quantity. A few stiff jail sentences would quickly put an end to this kind of "outdoor sport."

Money With Which To Buy

This week one of our customers withdrew several thousand dollars which he used to BUY outright certain STOCKS.

These dollars our customer had accumulated by making REGULAR DEPOSITS in a SPECIAL ACCOUNT at this bank. The Stock Market was offering many opportunities for INVESTMENT BUYING. The companies whose stocks our customer purchased have long records for DIVIDENDS, and at the price paid our customer received an EXCELLENT YIELD.

This man is an INVESTOR, and he had two very necessary qualifications: MONEY and PATIENCE. Doesn't this story illustrate an excellent program for INVESTING? It is the same story whether one is buying stocks, or bonds, or mortgages, or even an automobile.

May we open a "SPECIAL ACCOUNT for ACCUMULATING INVEST-MENT FUNDS" for you? (We can make this operate automatically if you

Small homes as well as large need lower heating costs

THE owners of large houses nearly always economize — that is, they buy wisely — and, in building they nearly always insulate. It is the falsest kind of economy for the owner of a small house to think he cannot "afford" to insulate. He can't afford not to insulate now that Johns-Manville has perfected a method that does away with costly re-plastering or re-siding.

This new Home Insulation can be quickly and cheaply applied to any house—whether frame, brick-veneer, or stucco, so as to pro-vide an insulating wall four inches thick against summer heat and wintry winds.

We know you will find it profitable to learn about the genuine savings in fuel it will make possible, and you will be amazed to learn how much more comfortable it will make every room in your home both winter and summer. The inevitableness of the international mind was most forcefully brought home to all members and guests of the Review Club, who listened last Tuesday morning to Miss Harriet Whittier's most inspiring presentation of that subject. Herself well qualified to speak of such matters, from 18 months of war service in France, from 4 summers at Williamstown, and from 3 in Geneva attending annual sessions of the Council, she gave first, graphically and vividly, the historical background of the growth of organization. From caveman families through tribes, towns, cities and states, the nations in 1920 knew, taught by the horrors of the World War, that the next inevitable step was the world group, for civilization to exist. The smaller group must give Club

"We are never too busy to do some thing else" was the subject of the talk given by the Rev. Boynton Merill, D. D., before The West Newton Women's Educational Club, on Friday last.

He said in part: "Society makes a great mistake in stopping with the formal process of education just as maturity is reached. Recent scientific studies have proven that adults as maturity is reached. A pretty gesture of publicity was the feature line across the top of the page of the Brockton Enterprise, publishing the account of the meeting—BROCKTON PROUD TO ENTERTAIN STATE FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS.

In a statement to the press appearing in this same issue, Mrs. Packard, the president, gave graceful thanks to the pager, and worded her appreciation of the power of publicity:

"The Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs appreciates the part the press plays in furthering the aims and activities of organized women. When the press and the Women's Clubs co-operate, there results a great force for high accomplishment. Besides these social courtesies of the day, the preceding evening—Thursday—had witnessed a dinner and reception, in honor of Mrs. Packard, Mrs. Arthur Devens Potter, and of five other officers, tendered by the State assistant clerk, Mrs. Charles L. This delightful affair gave to each one fortunate in being present a white statuette of the "Walk-over Lady" stepping over the shoe, so calling attention to the guests that they were in the Shoe City—these dainty and beautiful "place cards" being the gift, also, of the George E. Of it, Mrs. Packard, with some emotion, said she felt as if she were stepping over the world, in so gracious a reception to Brockton. those who were there to picture in their memories the tall, straight and typically American young captain as he modestly told of his experiences. He is still tall and straight and distinguished looking. His eyes are sharp but friendly. A bit bald and a trifle gray it is evident that he is middle-ased. Nevertheless his gait is smart and snappy, showing that he has taken the best of care of himself. "By the way." I asked, "it's still "Captain", isn't it?" He laughed. "After I resigned from the Navy and entered Congress I suppose I was no longer Captain. But it sounds natural, so go ahead." His home, he told me, is in Los Angeles and he travels a great deal as the president of a national organization to put down illegal drug traffic. "We seek to do it though education", he said, rather emphatically, implying, I thought, that he didn't want me to think him a crank or a wild-eyed reformer.

"An Auburndalite" has written suggesting that as a traffic observer I might find something of interest for my readers in the transportation situation at Lake street. I confess that I have never had occasion to use the facilities there at an hour when one might well expect to find things more or less complicated. It seems to me that as far as descriptive powers are concerned "An Auburndalite" has done the matter full justice and because I am sure that I could not do a better job of writing myself I am printing the letter herewith:

"My dear Mr. Bentley—I have long been an interested reader of your weekly column in the Graphic and have enjoyed your witty discussion relative to conditions at Nonantum square and the Elevated cars. Now there is another transfer point that I have been waiting for several years for you to write on, but evidently you don't commute via Lake street, or I know it would receive your attention. "If you have any spare time, say around 5:30—6 p. m., and feel in the mood, park yourself at Lake street and see what you see! Or better, try to cross the southerly side of Commonwealth avenue without a hop, skip and jump!

But nothing but a traffic officer would stop the trucks and autos speeding down the hill and across the boarding platform."

The guest and speaker, Col. Richardson, has won fame as a soldier and orator. As Commandant of the West Point cadets, Col. Richardson will have a most interesting and instructive talk, illustrated by moving pictures showing the life of the cadets from entrance to graduation.

Col. Richardson's able oratory, ready wit and humor and thorough knowledge of army tactics and the training at West Point will be a thrilling program for the fathers and sons of members. Probably no army officer in the United States is so well qualified as Col. Richardson, the commandant of 1200 future officers, to give the complete story of West Point. His service in the World War, for which he was awarded the distinguished service medal, as well as the French Legion of Honor, the Belgian Order of Leonold, the Italian Order of St. Mauice medal, as well as the French Legion of Honor, the Belgian Order of Leopold, the Italian Order of St. Maurizio and St. Lazarus and the Allied Victory medals make him outstanding in United States army life. Guatemala has a population of about 2,000,000, of which about half are native Indians. Guatemala city contains about 130,000 and is a modern city with hotels, theatres and paved streets. The city is a mile high and has a wonderful climate, the thermometer rarely dropping below 60 and never higher than 85 degrees. It is 196 miles from the nearest sea port and it takes 16 hours on a train to cover that distance. The chief products of the country are bananas, coffee and hard woods. Mr. Mosman predicted that Guatemala coffee would soon be acknowledged the best in the world. The country is a republic with a president elected for 8 years. years.

Eleven Churches and the Newton Y. M. C. A. are co-operating in a Church visitation week under the leadership of Mr. George Irving of the National Council of the Young Men's Christian Association. Suppers are being held every evening of this week for the workers at the Newton Y. M. C. A. The following Churches are co-operating: the Methodist Churches of Auburndale, Newton, Newtonville, Newton Upper Falls, and Newton Highlands, the Congregational Churches of Auburndale, Newton Centre, and Newton, the Baptist Churches of Newton and West Newton, and the Church of the New Jerusalem of Newtonville.

Mr. Harold T. Dougherty, former ton, and the Church of the New Jerusalem of Newtonville.

Mr. Harold T. Dougherty, former treasurer of the Newton Y. M. C. A., has recently been chosen President of the Westfield Association, in which city he now lives. Under Mr. Dougherty's leadership a very successful financial campaign has just been completed. Mayor Edwin O. Childs was the speaker at the opening banquet.

The Y. M. C. A. at Youngstown, Ohio, was attempting to raise one million ($1,000,000.00) for the enlargement of the work in that city. Nearly 800 representative citizens were gathered together at the opening dinner for the campaign. Much to the surprise of everyone the Special Gifts Committee announced gifts totaling $1,133,146.00. This would seem to be a record in money raising in Y. M. C. A. campaigns or those of other institutions.

Reading Course To Be Presented

of Newtonville M. E. Church

Phideiah Rice, Adele Hoes Lee, C. Edmund Neil, Elizabeth Pooler Rice and Hortense Creede Railsback are the tallent appearing on the Reading Course which the Woman's Association of the Newtonville Methodist Church is offering to the community of Newton this winter. The Course will be held in the Assembly room of the church on Friday evenings.

On Nov. 22 Mr. Rice reads "Great Expectations," by Dickens. Mr. Rice's reputation as a dramatic reader is well known. This play is Mr. Rice's own Iramatization from the novel. It is representative of his art at its full maturity and, as a critic has said, "is a contribution of distinction to the entertainment of mankind."

on Friday evening, January 24th.

The last number of the course on Friday evening, Feb. 7th, is by Mrs. Watter S. Ralisback. She will read Austin Strong's play "Seventh Heaven." The unusual appeal of Mrs. Railsback's reading lies in the rare combination of dramatic strength together with great beauty. It is elustive, charming and tender.

The Woman's association feel that they are presenting to the public a course of merit and one that is unusual.

bega Council, B. S. A.

The first Court of Honor of the season, presided over by Scout Commissioner John M. Bierer, was held at the Levi Warren School, West Newton, last Friday evening. The big feature of the evening, which gave a thrill to the audience of about 250 and the 300 Scouts and officers, was the presentation of the Eagle Badge, the highest award in the Boy Scouts of America, to Scouts Lawrence Jump and Clay Lewis of Troop 11, Newton; Arnold Seligman of Troop 14, Upper Falls; and William Callihan of Troop 18, Centre.

Arnold Seligman of Troop 14, Upper Falls; and William Callihan of Troop 18, Centre.

In line with the policy, being stressed more than ever this year by Norumbega Council—that of letting the Scouts themselves "run their own show"—the Court was planned and carried thru by the Eagle Circle, composed of the Eagle Scouts of the Council. Chief Eagle Harry Colony of the Circle was in charge and with him were Eagle Scouts Leslie Doten, Richard Schroeder, Alfred Payne, C. Warren Dillaway, Jr., Wallace Goodnow, Alexander Pratt. The Court opened with the marching in of the Court members, each escorted by an Eagle Scout; Court members were President Hutchinson, Messrs. Frank A. Day, G. D. Marcy, Charles H. Center, E. F. Dow, C. F. Liscomb, A. P. Hartshorn, William V. M. Fawcett and H. K. Wead.

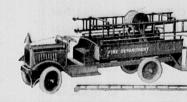

Followed the Color ceremony and then Chief Eagle Colony introduced Scout Commissioner Bierer, who showed slides and spoke on the Merit Badge Exposition which is to be put on at the State Armory in West Newton on February 7 and 8, 1930.

So, when the Niagara Falls excursion trains arrived at the Newtonville railroad station on the evening of October 11th the writer was waiting to board it. There were five all steel coaches and a smoker on the train which was drawn by a locomotive of the same type as used on the crack express trains of the B. & A. As evidence of the attention paid to these excursions by the Boston & Albany Railroad is the fact that on the train we met W. G. Graham, General Passenger Agent and Thomas T. Baldwin, Trainmaster. Both these officials were making the trip to see that nothing would be left undone to provide a comfortable journey for the excursionists. Mr. Graham gave the information that although each coach will seat $4 passengers, only about 40 persons are allotted to each car. At Worcester two additional coaches were added to the train, and at Springfield another coach was coupled on. two additional coaches were added to the train, and at Springfield another coach was coupled on. Thus, passengers boarding the train at the stops made after leaving Boston were assured seats. The total number of passengers on the trip was 365.

Included among the passengers were young folks, middle aged persons and elderly men and women. While they differed as to age, they were alike in one respect. All on board the train appeared to be quiet, well behaved people. There was no plenic atmosphere. The great majority of those making the trip were bound for Niagara, but many were taking advantage of the low fare to visit friends in or near Buffalo. We conversed with a theological student en route to Ohio, and with a youth who was returning to an agricultural college in Western New York.

During the earlier hours of the night a couple of train merchants passed through the train vending hot coffee, sandwiches and other refreshments.

Pittsfield was reached at 11 o'clock, and here the brakeman displayed his interest in the comfort of the passengers by taking off his coat and dissembling the seats to re-arrange them in couch form. No person in that coach had to sit up the remainder of the journey. The improvised berths, while not as comfortable as Pullmans, permitted the passengers to stretch out and sleep. The coach lights were dimmed and sufficient quiet prevailed to allow anyone to slumber who wished to do so.

There were three children in the coach, all of whom, with their mothers, alighted from the train when it reached Buffalo the next morning. One was a little chap of five, accustomed to travel and as quiet as a mouse. Another, a rugged, well mannered little fellow of two, had the misfortune to drop his milk bottle as the train was enroute from Pittsfield to Albany. His mother telegraphed from Albany to Syracuse for another milk bottle, and when the train stopped at Syracuse to shift engines, a Western Union messenger boy was waiting at the station with the bottle.

During the early morning hours the train sped swiftly across central New York maintaining a schedule comparable with that of the regular express

Seven Keys to Baldpate" Is Well

Before a large and enthusiastic audience the Newton Club Dramatic Corps presented George M. Cohan's famous melodramatic farce, "Seven Keys To Baldpate" on Tuesday evening in the high school auditorium. The production was most successful in every way and the players and committees deserve much credit for their efforts in behalf of the Newton Circle of the Florence Crittenton League to whom the proceeds will go.

The play deals with the efforts of a young author, William Magee, in attempting to write a ten thousand word manuscript in twenty-four hours in the lonesomest spot in the world. If he fails he pays a wager of five thousand dollars to his friend, who selects his summer resort, Baldpate Inn on top of Baldpate mountain as the place to write the story. It is the middle of winter and ghosts and hermits, crooks and corrupt politicians add to the story. There is supposedly but one key to the Inn which the caretaker turns over to Magee before he and his wife take their departure.

But after they have gone Magee is interrupted in his efforts to write by the entry of others, each with the "only" key. The intruder who puts $200,000 in the hotel safe and arranges with the Mayor of the nearby city for a meeting at nine the next morning has the second key. The newspaper reporter who hears of Magee's wager and knows of an attempt to bribe the mayor in return for a railway franchise has the third. Peters, the hermit and the "ghost," has the next. The fifth is in the possession of Myra Thornhill, the girl crook who poses as the railway president's wife. Mayor Cargan and his henchman has the next key. Max, the henchman is planning with the girl crook to double cross the Mayor while the girl crook planning to double cross both has the sixth.

The first act builds up the plot to the point where Magee has the crooks lined up at the point of gun waiting

"It is a novel pleasure to be here in this station, which is but one of the results of the capable and energetic administration of the City of Newton, represented by Mayor Childs here. Newton is a leader among the cities of the nation. It has been mentioned by professors of government at Harvard as an example of municipal progress and government. Our present fire department is an important part of that government. Our present fire department is second to none. This new station is an example of the most up to date fire stations.

"Probably you men sometimes feel that your efforts and achievements are not appreciated by the Citizens of Newton. Perhaps we who live here have never let you know in any way that we are aware of your good work, but we are here to tell you that we do realize what you have done and are doing for us, that we feel sure of you when we trust millions of dolars in property and our homes and business to your care.

TWO ALARM FIRE AT WEST NEWTON

Twenty tons of hay, a quantity of start awand other inflammable material furnished the fuel for one of the most spectacular fires in this city for sometime when a large shed built of wood with corrugated iron covering was burned Wednesday noon. But for the metal covering it would have been difficult for the firemen to prevent the blaze spreading to a number of wooden structures close by the big hay shed of the C. F. Eddy Company at the rear of 1411 Washington street, West Newton. Box 35, pulled at 12:43 brought Engine 2 and seven minutes later a second alarm was pulled. The blaze was confined to the building in which it started. The damage was estimated at about $5000.

IV. The Newton Board of Directors suggests the appointment of a joint committee composed of an equal number of members from each Board which would be empowered to make definite arrangements for a merger of the two Associations. After such merger has been accepted by the Boston and Newton Boards it must, of necessity, be accepted by the membership of the Newton Association.

V. The Newton Board makes these requests to the Boston Board believing that thereby the young women of the whole city of Newton will be better served by making available to them the splendid and easily accessible resources of Boston's new building. The Newton Board feels that in nearly ten years of existence, the Newton Association has laid a foundation of work in the community which will not be lost by this proposed merger. While the Newton Board can make no definite promises of financial aid, it would faithfully endeavor to have its loyal members and subscribers transfer their support to the whole work of the Boston Association."

On the evening of Monday, November 4, Mrs. H. H. Powers opened her hospitable house for the Fall Meeting of the Membership of the Newton Y. W. C. A. Notices of the meeting read "To consider the advisability of a merger with the Boston Association" and interest was naturally keen to know what was proposed.

MEDFORD KEEPS ITS SLATE CLEAN

Medford high kept its season record clear by annexing its seventh consecutive victory of the season at the expense of the Newton High eleven,
20 to 0 last Saturday at Clafflin Field.
Captain Spellman of Medford was the outstanding player, scoring all three of the visitors' touchdowns and aiding materially in bottling up the local attack. The orange and black team was not outplayed as completely as the not outplayed as completely as the score indicates. In fact they showed better offensive play than in any game this season. Perry Elrod was particularly brilliant in the latter part of the game and with a little more luck would have gotten free for a score on several occasions. An unfortunate veral occasions. An unfortunate ewton fumble which Medford recov-Newton fumble which meditor recovered and quickly turned into its first touchdown before the game was two minutes old was a big factor in Newton's defeat. Had that not occurred the entire story might have been quite different. Medford made seven first downs to five for Newton. All of Newton's came in the second half while Medford made two in each of the first three periods and one in the fourth.

First Period

Newton won the toss and chose to receive the ball while Medford elected to defend the north goal. Strombom took Spellman's kickoff on his tenyard line and ran it back ten yards. The strategy of throwing a forward pass on the first play failed when Strombom missed the pass from Layton. Layton was starting at quarterback and Strombom in Elrod's place at left half. Norton fumbled the ball on a criss-cross play and McLucas recovered it for Medford on Newton's fifteen-yard mark. Stagliano and Janjanian of Medford made it first down on the Newton five-yard line in three plays, the latter carrying twice. Spellman crashed through the Newton, left tackle for the score. Janjanian kicked the goal. Norton ran Spellman's kickoff back to the Newton 35-yard line but the Newton attack failed to get going and Schipper kicked. With Elrod not in the game the Newton captain had to come back out of the line to punt. Kinsella, Medford right end who played a great game all the way, blocked the kick and it was Medford's ball on downs on the Newton 25-yard stripe. On the first play Medford was holding and penalized 15 yards, preventing another score. A forward pass from Stagliano to Spellman made up 20 yards of the distance but Butler blocked the next pass to give Newton the ball on downs. An offside penalty against Newton forced Schipper to kick again with McCarthy nailing Stagliano before he could take a step. Medford started a march which carried the ball from the 45-yard line to the Newton 30-yard stripe where Newton took the ball on downs just before the period ended.

Norton kicked this time, the ball going outside on the Newton 40-yard line. Med-1,000 low ford failed to gain and Spellman kicked to the 10-yard line. Elrod had come into the game a few plays previous and on third down he kicked to midfield. Medford started another march which led to its second score. The chief factor in the advance was a 20-yard forward pass from Stagilano 1.66 to Spellman with Elrod getting the tackle to save a touchdown run. Following the pass Spellman and Stagilano made a first down on the Newton ten-yard line. Four plays later Spellman went over through the Newton right tackle for six yards and the score. Mountiford, who had relieved Janjanian, failed to kick the goal. Following the kickoff Blackler took Elrod's place. On third down his kick was blocked and Medford recovered on the Newton two-yard line. The first rush failed and Mountiford fumbled on the next. Newton recovered the fumble to end the half. Score, Medford 13, Newton 0.

Third Period

Elrod kicked off to Spellman with the latter running back to his 35-yard line. On second down Spellman kicked to the Newton 15-yard line where the Medford ends downed the ball. An exchange of kicks gave Medford the ball on the Newton 35-yard line. Spellman got around his right end for a 15-yard gain before Hamilton, substituting for Boughan, brought him down. On the next play McCully made and cutting back prettily. Strombon milded him down before he could score, malled him down before he could score, and Spellman went the strong has been completed. On Trip To Michigan

Two former Newton high athletes, undergraduates at Harvard, will be at Michigan adding in the Harvard cause fomorrow. Tommy Gilligan is a mental back Guy Hobbrook is done of the cheer leaders that will aid in giving the tease and the Bluck Andres as the stadium, the team moral support from the Crimson supporters.

Andres Rates High

With talk of Ben Ticknor of Harvard showing ill-America calibre as a centre is a threating on the cheer leaders that will aid in giving the tease and the Bluck Andres as constituted as the control of the With talk of Ben Ticknor of Harvard showing all-America calibre as a centre it is interesting to note the record of Harold Andres of Dartmouth. Andres, a former Newton high captain, and star centre, gave Ticknor all he could handle in the Stadium two weeks ago. At recovering fumbles there aren't many ball-hawks better than Andres. He covered several loose balls in the Stadium. At the Yale Bowl last week during that historic struggle between the Green and the Blue Andres was just as conspicuous as in the Stadium. Following Dartmouth's first score in the third period Yale fumbled on its 33-yard line. Andres recovered and Marsters crashed through the Yale line for a touchdown in three plays. That put the Green ahead 12 to 10 and apparently sewed the game up. A fortunate break for Yale intercepting a pass gave Ellis his chance to make himself a hero on an 85-yard run for the winning score later in the game. Andres also smothered Booth, the Yale star, at an opportune time. As an indication of Andres' alertness he stopped play in the second period to inspect the ball but it was all right.

Gilligan Misses Goal

Tommy Gilligan Misses Goal
Tommy Gilligan got into the game against Florida last Saturday for part of the game. In the third period he missed a drop-kick from the 35-yard line by a matter of inches. That was the closest the Crimson second-string backfield came to scoring.

Clark Out Of Game

Len Clark, Dartmouth halfback, who has been interfering excellently for Al Marsters, is out of the game for several weeks at least and will be fortunate to play in the game with Navy. He fractured a rib in the Harvard game but it was not discovered until the Green squad was on its way to New Haven for the Yale game last week. An X-ray revealed the injury after the Newton Highlands youth had felt considerable discomfiture most of the week. The accident to Clark and the injury to Marsters in the bowl handicaps the Dartmouth team in the final stage of the season considerably.

Johnson May Start Clark Out Of Game

Johnson May Start

Henry Johnson has replaced Ed Sutton at the fullback position on the Dartmouth team. The shift may not be permanent however and it is still a problem as to whether or not the Waban tennis player will start against Brown tomorrow at Providence. Johnson showed well against Harvard, his 35-yard touchdown run being nullified by a substitute talking before the first play had been completed. Against Yale Johnson's line plunges for consistent gains brought him much praise from the Green coaches. If Johnson were a little faster on the start it would help his game immeasurably.

and cutting back prettily. Strombon pulled him down before he could score. Two more plays and Spellman went over for the third time. Janjanian kicked the goal to make it twenty points and end the scoring. Strombom ran back the kickoff thirty yards to his 35-yard stripe, where Debenidus brought him down. Elrod tossed a pass to McCarthy for eight yards and Newton made five more in two rushes for Newton's initial first down of the day. Newton drew a penalty for offside play but Elrod got through tackle for sixteen yards and another first down. Medford piled on and drew fifteen yards penalty to give Newton the ball on the Medford 25-yard line. Elrod's pass to Strombon was incomplete. Elrod's next pass was intercepted by Spellman who raced back 35 yards before Elrod stopped him with a clean tackle. Had the fleet Medford captain got away from Elrod he would have scored again as there was no one else who had a chance. Three rushes put the ball on Newton's 38-yard line where the period ended.

Fourth Period

Spellman kicked over the Newton goal. Elrod made six yards at 'right tackle from punt formation. Newton made four at centre for another first down of the day.

Again Medford 40-yard line. Spellman sicked but Medford say and soffside and the ball brought back. As Neventon sained about thirty yards on the Medford 40-yard line. CRUCIAL LEAGUE CONFLICT TODAY

Country Day's second and third teams have just completed their season, and not a single defeat mars the records of either team. The second team played a scoreless tie with the Newton High third team, and defeated Midlesex seconds 24-6, Belmont High seconds 25-0, and Derby Academy first team 9-0. Throughout the season, Eddie Downes, brother of the varsity guard, and Robert Henderson, starred in the backfield. The third team started with a scoreless tie with Milton Academy thirds, and ended with a 13-6 win over the Brookline High freshman outfit, in which Schmidt and Thorndike were potent factors in the backfield.

MEDFORD MUSINGS

The Newton offense was better in the last half of the game than at any time this season. All five of the orange and black's first downs were made with the Medford regulars in the game.

Layton looked good as a safety man. He got punts as though he was used to doing it in his sleep. It mattered little to him whether they were right in his hands, or whether he had to take them on the run or whether there were Medford tackles waiting to nail him or not.

Perry Elrod needed but a little mor Perry Elrod needed but a little more luck and he would have scored. At least twice he was through the Medford line and almost in the clear when the Medford secondaries got their hands on him by the barest of margins. Credit to them that they held what little grasp they had on him.

Eaglets and Bridgton Tie

The Boston College Freshman team and Bridgton Academy played a 7 to 7 tie at University Heights last Saturday. Everett Scheinfain, former Newton captain and all-scholastic end, and Bill Sutcliffe, former Newton back, were the Bridgton ends. Scheinfain played the first half but suffered a hip injury which kept him on the bench the second half. It is possible that he may not be able to play Monday against Hebron Academy. Neither Bridgton nor Hebron has been defeated in its Maine prep school conference and the game will decide the championship. Hebron lost to Exeter Academy last Saturday. This and Bridgton's tie game with the Eaglets are the only marks on the two teams' records.

ABOUT TOWN

By Edw. H. Powers

Our idea of "a square peg in a roun hole" is Graham McNamee broadcas ing a football game.

Residents of Newton who have listened on their radio sets to the stentorian, diaphragmatic voice of Hon. James M. Curley urging his election so that he can make "Greater Boston" a reality, might fall for the "blarney" handed out by James but for the opportunities they had, while the "orator" was Mayor of Boston, to observe the condition of streets in suburban sections of that city and the desultory collection of ashes and garbage. Most citizens of Newton would not want this city annexed to Boston even though they might have as chief executive of the greater city the modest, self effacing Mr. Curley.

—Mrs. L. W. Arnold and Mr. Doane 13.

If wounded in the right leg, but he refused to be evacuated until the evening of that day, when the 39th had succeeded in repulsing the Germans. For this act of heroism he was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross and the Croix de Guerre.

Returning to his regiment after many weeks in hospitals, he went into Germany with the Army of Occupation and for meritorious work there was promoted to Lieut. Colonel on May 6, 1919. Returning to the United States he was made a major in the regular army in 1920. While in the Army of Occupation, Major Mitchell was as charitable to the vanquished Germans as he had been courageous against them in battle. He was particularly solicitous about the undernourished, anaemic little children; "Innocent victims of the war," he termed them.

Overzealous in the performance of his duties, overseas, he refused leaves of absence to which he was well entitled. His intense loyalty to service had been constantly evidenced since the conclusion of the war and undoubtedly over-application to his work contributed to his untimely death. He was buried with full military honors on October 29th in the National Cemetery at Arlington.

BRIGHT AS A BUTTON

If your car doesn't look as bright and shiny as it did the day it was new, it's probably not the fault of the finish. For a Duco finish can be polished up to give the same bright gloss it does on the cars in the show-rooms. The right polish and plenty of "rub" and you'll be proud to climb aboard.

Let us show you how good a job we can do on your car. In connection with our Duco re-finishing work we give a lot of polishing and touch-up service. Touch-up service takes care of the places where the finish may have been chipped off a door or fender.

FIRE MENACES BRAY BLOCK

At 10:32 last Friday night Patrolman McCormick discovered a fire at Bray Block, Union street, Newton Centre. He pulled Box 72 and when the firemen arrived they found a threatening blaze which had apparently started in the cellar under the store occupied by the Newton Co-operative Bank. The flames had broken through the floor of the plumbing shop of M. F. O'Connor but quick work by the firemen prevented the fire spreading through the building. Heavy smoke from the fire forced occupants on suites on the upper floors of the building to leave their apartments.

Thirty-seven girls On Saturday, November 2nd, the first meeting of the Junior Patrol Leaders' Association was held at Camp Mary Day. Thirty-seven girls were present, representing 12 of the 17 Junior Troops; so worth while was this meeting that we are very sorry any had to be absent. The girls divided into groups according to villages and chose a Secretary for each village to be responsible for spreading notices of meetings, etc. A game, "Pollow the Leader" was then played. After dinner the business meeting was held; Jean Harvey, Troop 25, West Newton, was elected Chairman of the Association and Louise Kerr, Troop 11, Newton Highlands, was elected Secretary. Two questions were then discussed; "How can the Patrol Leader best help her Capitain?" and "What responsibilities does a girl take on when she becomes a Girl Scout?" The discussion proved very interesting and enlightening and Patrol Leader gained many new ideas to take back to their troops. It was voted to hold a meeting in February and another in the spring.

The first hike for Senior troops will be held. Saturday, November 9th, The girls will meet at Camp Mary Day at 11 a. m. and will then hike cross-country through the woods and eat their lunch. After resting and playing games they will hike back and caus just obtained from 28 representative American cities indicate conclusively that the motoring public prefers the Eight to all other engine types. Take Boston as an example: for the first eight months of 1929, new cars with list prices above $1000 showed a 70 per cent increase in Eights and a 21 per cent decrease in Sixes! At the famous Paris Salon this fall, 44 makes of eight cylinder cars were exhibited, compared with 27 last year.

Studebaker, world's largest producer of Eights, two years ago initiated this era of the inexpensive Eight with the champion Studebaker President which traveled 30,000 miles in 26,326 consecutive minutes.

And today, at customary six-cylinder prices, you can choose from three great lines of Studebaker Eights — holders of eleven world records for speed and endurance and more American stock car records than all other makes combined.

Get a smart, new, thrifty Studebaker Eight - backed by 77 years of manufacturing integrity - and your car will be worth more in the trade-in markets of the future.

Mr. Fisher will repeat in this address much that he said last summer at the International Music Conference at Geneva, Switzerland, so that his audience will be brought into touch with this large enterprise, and should carry away from the Conference a broad outlook and scope of this artistic field, as well as more minute practical suggestions for every-day artistic field, as well as more minute practical suggestions for every-day

Shakespeare Club

The Shakespeare Club of Newton Highlands met on Saturday afternoon, November 2nd, at the home of Mrs. William M. Mick, of 559 Parker street, Newton Centre, this date of her hostess-ship being a particularly happy one, in that being her birthday, her fellow-members showered her with gifts, birthday cards and good wishes, a poem of tribute, written by Mrs. William E. Moore, and addressed to her, being the key to the "shower." This came as a complete surprise to Mrs. Mick.

Mrs. Mick.

The program—Act III of Romeo and Juliet—was also in charge of Mrs. Moore. In her presentation, she brought out very interestingly the kind of government that existed in Verona at this time, and the deadly feud between the Montagues and Capulets. She dwelt upon the dramatic and poetic value of the play, some of the passages being of exquisite and highly imaginative verse, as perfect as anything of that kind that Shakespeare ever wrote.

The note of the meeting was at last turned to sadness when it was announced that one of their beloved members had that morning passed away. The death of Mrs. Bernard Early will be felt by members of many Clubs as she had been known among Clubwomen not only of the Shakespeare Club, whose purpose she loved, but among the women of West Newton and of the Newton Federation, all of which Clubs she has served in some office.

On Monday, November 4th, Mrs. Joseph Briggs of 25 Berwick road opened her home for a reception and bridge for the new members of the Newton Centre Woman's Club. The guests were greeted by Mrs. Briggs, who in turn introduced them to a member of her Hospitality committee. The guest was given a tag with her name on it so that all might become acquainted.

Four hands of bridge were played and then ten minutes allowed for talking before progressing to the next table.

Mrs. Briggs spoke a few words of welcome, and then Mrs. Harry Gibson, the first Vice-president of the Club was introduced. She had been asked to take the place of Mrs. Walter Hartstone, the president, who is ill at her home. Mrs. Gibson extended a most cordial welcome from the old members to the new, and stressed the point of how much the Club needed and appreciated the younger element represented by this new group of members. Refreshments were served and the afternoon proved to be most delightful to all.

The second play is "Moth Ball," by Saille Kemper. Mary Craig, a successful playwright, will be taken by Mrs. Early Stevenson; Betty Hughes, her secretary, by Mrs. L. Chase Kepner; and Gladys Deane, an actress, by Mrs. V. Bruce Davis. The summer home of Mary Craig, at the present time, is the setting, and Mrs. Van Courtland Lawrence is the coach.

All members will do well to be on hand as this promises to be a most entertaining and amusing afternoon.

Some of Miss Temple's truisms were: "music like painting, is an expression of soul life"; "many have forgotten they have a solo in life"; "singing people are a successful people"; "all money spent in cultivation of voice and of the body is money well spent"; "singing increases character through difficulties overcome"; "singing admits one to a great library of literature of song"; and, "people like music for the thought or song that goes with it." During an intermission Miss Sabin introduced a surprise—the premiere presentation of a song written, both words and music, by one of the Club members, Mrs. Warren H. Hoey, and sung by Miss Mabel Parkes Friswell, a teacher of voice in Boston University, and a soloist before the microphone over WNAC. The song, "A Lucky Red, Red Rose," was sung from manuscript since it had just come from the publishers that morning. Miss Friswell also sang "November Rose," the words of which were written by Mrs. Hoey and welcomed as a friend by most of those present, as it was sung at one of the Club meetings soon after being published last year. The president, Mrs. Ward I. Cornell presiding, brought to the minds of all the approaching Red Cross roll-call which begins on Armistice Day, urging every one not to forget the work done in War time, and to continue contributions in Peace time.

Mrs. Hiram A. Miller presented a short play, "America for Americans." The parts were excellently taken by five of the sons and daughters of Club members, and the play was very amusing. It was a splendid introduction to the subject of the afternoon, carrying out the idea of World Peace, and the importance of such, in showing how dependent we are upon many nations for the comforts and beauties which go to make up our homes.

MOVING PICTURES. It is undeniable that motion pictures are the most tangible means of recreation today, and statistics indicate that one hundred million people attend motion picture theatres each week; the influence of the kind of picture shown, therefore, is almost appalling to consider. Newton Clubwomen who will recall the effort made in 1923 by the Legislative chairman for the Newton Federation and for the Newton Community Club—Miss Emma D. Coolidge—to make the so-called bloc system illegal in Massachusetts; an effort that while it failed in itself was a decided factor in the establishment of the policy of The Open Door, by Will Hays, through which Clubwomen could make their opinions and suggestions known; will be glad to learn that the General Federation has taken up in real earnest an effort to improve conditions and to support pictures that are worthy support.

Something over a year ago the Uni-thy support.

Something over a year ago the United States Supreme Court rendered a decision that the bloc system was unconstitutional, and one of the large producers was enjoined and fined for forcing it upon exhibitors. This was Miss Coolidge's contention before the Massachusetts Committee in 1923.

At a recent four days, conference in

At a recent four days' conference in At a recent four days' conference in New York City where over 68 organizations were represented Mrs. Thomas G. Winter of Pasadena (past president of the General Federation) was appointed to represent the public at Hollywood from the organized woman's standpoint. She will now work with Colonel Jason Joy, director of public and industrial relations of the Motion Picture Producers.

Motion Picture Producers.

Now the General Federation is asking the State Federation to co-operate in its program. The State Federation, in turn, has appointed District Advisors as to motion pictures to work with the local Clubs for betterment of pictures, and for support of the good ones—that is, Clubwomen are asked to attend the showings of pictures that are advocated as good, and to refuse to attend, or to allow their children to attend, pictures that should not be financially encouraged. By this method influence will result in better pictures being made, for, it is only too true, that money is the criterion by which production is measured.

so only too twe, that make a sured.

The State Motion picture chairman is Mrs. Oscar A. Blaisdell, of 126 Grand View avenue, Wollaston. Her branch of work comes under the broader head of Community Service, of which Department Mrs. Fred B. Cross is State chairman. Of the local advisors for Massachusetts the Twelfth District advisor is Mrs. Ernest F. Drew, of Auburndale, a member of the State Community Service committee, and chairman of the Community Service committee, and chairman function of the Auburndale Woman's Club.

Newton will be glad to know that its Clubs are co-operating with Mrs. Drew and with Mrs. Blaisdell through the Civies chairman, Mrs. Richard M. Ott, of Colbert road, West Newton.

To be sure some of these films may never reach Newton theatres. Probably all of them will reach Greater Boston theatres to which Newton people go. To have these lists of pictures published, with the comments of the General Federation Committee of Review, should be most helpful in selecting the better motion pictures, and especially in solving the problem of parents who wonder whether or not a certain picture is too mature for their children, or, in fact, desirable for them to see, even if within their comprehension, and whether or not it is to their own advantage to spend time seeing it.

The Mather Class

"The History of the Pentateuch" was the subject of Prof. Kirtley F. Mather's lecture last Sunday morning at the regular meeting of the Mather Class at the Newton Centre Woman's Club House

This was the second lecture in the series on Bibical Scholarship.

The Pentateuch was centuries in the making and represented several epochs in the national life of the people. It shows the growth of ideas about the nature of God.

about the nature of God.

In those early times the nomadic tribes were made up of large families, which consisted of the patriarch, his wives and children, and the slaves and live stock. The need for pasturage for the cattle caused them to be forever traveling, when they were not fighting or fleeing from more powerful foes. They had to gain strength before they could drive out the people who held the rich, fertile lands where they could settle down and build a nation.

During the nomadic period, there was not much writing done, because tablets of stone or baked clay were too clumsy and heavy to cart around where they were always on the move. Then again the people were too uncouth and untutored.

Then came the Dark Ages of He-brew history and the moral collapse in the time of Manasseh. Corrupt practices crept in from adjacent peo-

The reformation of Josiah ended this period of moral decay. The good people had been living as outcasts in caves, but they had preserved the old traditions and had formulated a set of regulations. To get a hearing they had to make a spectacular move, so, when the Temple was being repaired, they "found" a lost document, which had been carefully concealed a few days before. This was Deuteronomy. Of course they had got a lot of publicity. It was hailed as another writing of Moses because he was the hero of both kingdoms, where David was the hero of the South alone. A code of law was laid down, and it was just the sort of elaboration of the Decalogue which, it was believed, Moses would have sanctioned. In 400 B. C. the Pentateuch was put together in its present from. The historians put in two accounts of almost everything that happened. Five books were made for convenience, so the rolls of papyrus would not be too big to handle. The reformation of Josiah ender

It is not so difficult, I have found, to become "air-minded." The phrase doesn't exactly appeal to me. It sounds too much like "light-headed." However, it's what they are using commonly to describe interest in aviation. So great is my enthusiasm for air-planes that I have been carried completely off my feet. In fact, it was that which did it-—I mean since I have been lifted from the earth literally I have remained there metaphorically. Of course I haven't got to that of course I haven't got to that stage where I shall seek a pilot's license. One must have a machine with which to fly before one may become possessor of a certificate as an airman. At present I prefer to be a passenger and if there is any further examination, to be undergone I am passenger and if there is any further examination to be undergone I am ready to take the test. I should like to qualify as a permanent passenger providing it gave me the right to take a hop any time I saw fit.

ONE THING AND ANOTHER

You, no doubt, have been reading in the dailies from time to time various prophecies as to the kind of Winter prophecies as to the kind of Winter are a number of old men who specialize in forecasting. They are not it rained in the science of meteorology but appear to have gathered through their long and useful lives a lot of information or data—if there is a distinction between data and information I am unaware of it—but they get the "dope" together and then proceed to "figger it out".

One man comes out flatly with the assertion that it will be the most severe Winter since the French and Indian War. He says that everything will be frozen, including the breakfast coffee. He declares that transportate we may have to go without food for two or three days and that many other calamities are surely due between now and next Spring.

Tane I find a day later that still another octogenarian is confident we have required the completely of my feet. In fact, it was that which did it—I mean since I have been carried completely off my feet. In fact, it was that which did it—I mean since I have been carried completely off my feet. In fact, it was that which did it—I mean since I have been carried to make the completely off my feet. In fact, it was that which did it—I mean since I have been carried completely completely completely in the content of the completely of my feet. In fact, it was that which did it—I mean since I have been carried completely com wet feet. Of course I do not expect to engage in Winter sports, such as building a snow man or throwing snowballs at passing autos, but should I become unusually peppy and feel thus disposed I want to have all the thus disposed I want to have all the necessary equipment.

If only mittens were in fashion I should be the first to wear them. But since one has to send to the country to get them and go back there to wear them without being laughed at, I must forego that privilege. One has to have a grandmother or a best girl to knit him a nice big woolen scarf and as I have neither my money will be paid to the harberdasher where I will undoubtedly obtain something inferior but expensive.

Then I shall to have overshoes and

What did surprise me was the number of people I had never suspected of owning stock of any kind and who seemed violently excited over the market's performance. Now in my daily work it isn't unusual to have not only one but two messenger boys standing behind my typewriter waiting for me to finish a news story. That process, if you wish the technical phrase, is known as "rushing copy". It is one of the high moments that comes to a writer for a newspaper.

It so happened that there were two uniformed messenger boys in my office and regardless of the fact that I office and regardless of the fact that I was occupied they engaged in conversation about their own private affairs. One of them had bought some stock which he had disposed of at a profit. I was too busy pounding the machine to catch just how it happened. The other boy had lost. Naturally the latter was in a depressed state of mind.

When I found time to briefly question these boys I found what they were saying was in earnest. At least they were not joking as I had first suspected. They may have drawn the long bow as to amounts but there was no disputing the fact they were speculators.

was no disputing the fact they were speculators.

Nor was that all. I later encountered an elevator operator who was much upset about the market. He, it appeared, was dabbling in the great game. It was these discoveries that made me wonder not only where they got the money but why I should swell my chest at the mere suggestion that I might have played the market, too.

airman. At present I prefer to be a passenger and if there is any further examination to be undergone I am ready to take the test. I should like to qualify as a permanent passenger providing it gave me the right to take a hop any time I saw fit.

It's queer how you get "hoppy". In my case it was due to the urging of friends. They first suggested that insamuch as I had never taken a flight in an airplane it might be a valuable experience. I argued that there was no value in it. Many people I had known had spent their good money for such a loy ride and it had not, as far as I was able to observe, increased their earning-power, heightneed their social status or made them more desirable citizens. My friends answered that it wouldn't cost me a cent.

With the monetary consideration swept aside I expressed doubt as tomy ability to spare the time. This, the conspirators met with the assurance that I would be transported by automobile to and from the airport in the fastest possible time. I thought of other obstacles but did not mention them. It was much easier to yield. Until you have clambered into an ifty little open plane as I did and had a helmet adjusted, ear-pads clapped on, goggles hung on your nose and a life belt strapped around you—until then, I insist, you can't imagine the sensation. The way the plane shot over the acres of cinders before it left the earth was thrill number on. Then came a lot of thrills together. I looked down on the harbor and saw the mund flats through the water, then out until I was soaring over Boston and later its suburbs. It seemed I was "mp" no time at all but they said it was 25 minutes anyway. And that's why I want to go again.

If I thought there was any chance of Santa Claus leaving me an airplane for Christmas I would hang up my stocking in the front yard. Meanwhile I gaze at the sky from morning to night to catch a glimpse of some

Financial Problems is Subject Considered

The third in the series of Banking Lectures arranged by the Newton Trust Company and the First National Bank of Newton, West Newton for their women depositors brought out a large number of intensely interested listeners. One hundred and eighty women gathered at Temple Hall, Newtonville Thursday morning at 10.30 to hear and take part in a frank discussion on the Problems of Families Who Have Joint Incomes of $3,000 to $10,000.

The first pseaker was Mrs. Albert S. Hutchinson, who gave a very able and concrete talk on possible budgets for a family of two adults and two-children, showing how the varying incomes should be divided under the classifications of savings, shelter, food, clothing, operation and development.

After saying that "real thrift is wise spending as well as saving," Mrs. Hutchinson made the point clear that each family must be sure of its sawing and then can shift the various other expenses to suit its peulianced and wants. It is most important to keep accounts, or at least to jot down expenses, for without such data, it is impossible to save or spend wisely.

Mr. Earl G. Manning a life insurance expert, was the second speaker. By show of hands Mr. Manning found that only about one-third of the company o might be assured of the same scale of living.

Mr. Manning felt that a man should provide for the future welfare of his family before saving for the education of his children. If the family income is small the average child or young person would be benefited by working to help pay for his schooling.

Mr. Richardson presided at the Round Table where there was a very general and lively discussion. The matter of owning and operating automobiles on small incomes and the disirability of owning a home instead of renting it proved fruitful topics for conversation. Discussion of these interesting subjects was continued over the coffee cups.

Annual Grid Game With Waltham High

Watch City Eleven Favorite Ove

The annual Newton-Waltham high football game will take place tomor-row afternoon at the Waltham Field. Waltham, by virtue of its undefeated and untied record, looms as one of the forenost teams in the state and is a lavorite to win. Newton on the other hand has had one of the poorest seasons in twenty years. Deprived of four teen players of last year's squad, who were expected to provide the nucleus for a strong eleven this fall. because of the so-called "three-year" rule, the entire squad lacks experience. But the Watch City team will know that they have been in a game when darkness falls tomorrow because in the Newton-Waltham games past records mean little. In many years the underdog has come through with the unexpected but the Waltham team, with victories over Fitchburg, Haverhill, Somerville, Medford and other good teams, is confident that they will come through again. It would be an overwhelming surprise to all school football supporters if the orange and black turned the trick.

Newton has shown flashes of power. Its defense has been god all the season but the offense has been weak. In the Everett game when a scoreless tie resulted the Newton eleven outplayed their opponents but lacked the punch to score. A lapse the next week cost them a victory over Quincy which ended 6 to 6. Playing their first game away from the last Saturday in October Newton handed Somerville game on a silver platter. Medford was the next opponent and although the final score was 20 to 0 the Newton eleven held Medford to seven first downs against five of their own. The final part of the game when Newton's offense began to function through the Medford regulars saw Coach Collins sending in freshmen. Last Saturday against Rindge Tech the orange and black offense was the best this season. Rindge scored two touchdowns at least one of which Newton should have prevented. On the other hand Newton scored but once out of several opportunities.

If the Newton offence improves as much in tomorrow's game as it has opportunities.

If the Newton offence improves as much in tomorrow's game as it has in the past few games it will be give and take by both teams. Waltham has bown great sooiing party that late.

Newton has lost the services of "Reggie" Bankart, left end, through injury in the Rindge game. He chipped a small piece of bone from his elbow and will probably be out the remainder of the season. Charles Butler will start in his place. The left tackle berth, which has been a troublesome spot all season is still unsettled. James Colligen, Joe Frechette and Bill Kenslea are battling for the chance to start with the possibility of either of the first two named being selected. The remainder of the Newton line will be as in other games, Art Boughan and Ed Moore, guards; Fred Schipper at centre, and Gordon Linberg and John McCarthy at right tackle and end, respectively.

'Unemployment' Is Subject Of Conference

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC (Newton, Mass.) FRIDAY, NOV. 15, 1929

Newton Central Council Has Monthly Luncheon at Y. M. C. A.

The monthly Welfare Luncheon Conference was held on Wednesday, November 13, at the Newton Y. M. C. A. The subject of the conference was "Unemployment".

After an informal luncheon, a short business meeting was held, in which Mrs. Louis Marshall was re-elected chairman of the luncheon conferences for the current year. Mrs. Stephen E. Wright was elected Secretary. Mrs. Drowne, chairman of the Women's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A., spoke of the work which they are doing to further the program of the Y. M. C. A., and urged the women who are interested join their membership.

Mrs. Marshall announced that the

and urged the women who are interested join their membership.

Mrs. Marshall announced that the fall meeting of the Newton Central Council will be given over to the Newton Tercentenary Committee, and will be held on Thursday, Dec. 12, at 8 p. m., at the Newton Centre Woman's Club. The speaker will be the Honorable Herbert Parker, Chairman of the Governor's Committee, Mr. Edward Whiting, author of Whiting's Column, and editor of Tercentenary News, and Mr. Rice, chairman of Newton Tercentenary Committee. Mrs. Marshall called upon Mrs. Ellis Spear, President of Council, who announced that the council project for this year will be the study of the unemployment situation, as it affects the social welfare of Newton. welfare of Newton. Newton agencies will be asked to aid in this study.

Mrs. Spear then introduced the speaker of the day, Mr. Stockton Raymond, General Secretary of the Fam-ly Welfare Society of Boston. Mr. Raymond asked that his hearers think ily Welfare Society of Boston. Mr. Raymond asked that his hearers think of him as here to stimulate rather than to dogmatize. He told of the beginning of his career in a shoe factory, where he received the wages of $7.00 a week, as assistant to the receiving clerk. Very soon, however, because he was by reason of education and physique better equipped, he was given the job of receiving clerk without an assistant, and his superior was fired. He was then required to do the work of two with but very little more in wages than he had received before. Later on, when he was a student at Columbia, he learned that this was the basis of much of the industrial trouble in the United States, and the same situation holds true even to the present day. The big difficulty is that there are many groups, each with different ideas as to the best solution of the problem of unemployment. These groups need to get together to find practical means and then to do it.

It is true that in spite of our general prosperity, there are thousands out of a lob todge there are are thousands

It is true that in spite of our general prosperity, there are thousands out of a job today through no fault of their own. There are three reasons for this: 1. Seasonal variation. 2. Cyclical carlation. 3. The general downward trend. For seasonal unemployment, Mr. Raymond gave the case of the master painter who employs 9 men during the spring and summer, and has to discharge 8 of them when winter arrives. By cyclical variation he means good years and bad years in industry and he spoke of the terrible years of 1914 and 1922, when the unemployment situation was such a serious problem everywhere. The downward trend, economists agree, is general, and is apt to increase because of constantly improving machinery (Continued on Page 3)

At the last meeting of the Newton Board of Aldermen a matter which has caused great indignation to many residents of Massachusetts was given at tention. Alderman Powers referred to the so-called excise tax on automobiles which has been so operated as to cause a large percentage of owners of automobiles in this Commonwealth to to taxed doubly and even more this year. He presented a motion instructing the Committee on Legislation of the Alderman to confer with the City Solicitor and Newton's representatives in the Legislature in an effort to have the present law amended so that the unfairness it has caused will be eliminated in the future and that some action will be taken by the Legislature to have a retroactive law enacted that will compel rebates to be granted towners of automobiles who were the victims of overtaxation this year. The Board passed this motion and the matter was referred to the Committee on Legislation which is comprised of Alderman Worth, chairman; Aldermen Earle, Gordon, Grebenstein, Jamieson, Temperley and Weeks.

Alderman Prior of Ward 3 has submitted for consideration the following amendment to the faculty section in the so-called excise tax on automobiles:— University Club of Boston, is a mem-ber of the Waban Library Committee and for many years has been promi-nent in civic affairs in this city. His six children have all attended the Newton public schools.

COUNTRY DAY TOPS ROXBURY LATIN

Before the largest crowd that ever witnessed a Private Day School League conflict, Country Day's power ful eleven defeated its Roxbury Latin ful eleven defeated its Roxbury Latin rivals, 13-6. From the opening whistle, the outcome of the battle was constantly in doubt. Roxbury Latin, with a still undefeated season behind it, was fighting desperately to keep its record clean, as well as take the Private Day School championship, which a victory in this game would give them. The Newton school was equalization to Power than to Power them. a victory in this game would give them. The Newton school was equally intent on putting a stop to Roxbury's string of victories, and to take this game because of its importance in regard to the championship. Country Day must still beat Browne and Nichols to win the league title, but this game was just as important. Roxbury won the toss and chose to receive. There followed a long exchange of kicks, in which Francis Gleason, Country's Day's star triplethreat halfback, showed his class, far outdistancing his Roxbury rival. About the middle of the period, the green backs got going and a fifty yard march resulted in the first score. Much ground was gained through tackle where the Country Day forward Much ground was gained through ackle where the Country Day forward wall opened some nice holes. Capt Bottomley finally took the ball over on a line plunge from the one yard

Roxbury took the kick-off and Pin kul reeled off a beautiful run which would have resulted in a score had not Bottomley saved the day. Roxbury followed this with a successful pass which netted 20 yards and put the ball on Country Day's three-yard line, first down. Capt. Bottomley called time out, and Country Day set itself to avert a score. Three times did the Roxbury backs hurl themselves at Country Day's line with little or no gain. On fourth down, O'Keefe, Roxbury's midget quarter-back, called for a criss-cross which completely fooled the Country Day secondaries. Capt. Shields skirted right end for a touchdown, and not a hand touched him, everybody being intent on stopping that last line buck kul reeled off a beautiful run which completely fooled the Country Day secondaries. Capt. Shields skirted right end for a touchdown, and not a hand touched him, everybody being intent on stopping that last line buck which they felt was sure to come. This time also the drop-kick for extra point was blocked, much to the relief of Country Day's followers. Neither team threatened seriously during the remainder of the half.

Late in the third period Bottomley suddenly got loose for a long run which put the ball on Roxbury's tenyard line. A few plays later he took it over on an off-tackle slant. He also made the extra point, by rushing, making the score 13-6 in Country Day's favor. Roxbury dominated the fourth period, with a furious passing attack in which four out of eight passes were successfully completed. Country Day had little chance to run the ball, being forced to kick out of danger constantly. Roxbury used a very widespread formation in this last period offensive, which spread across the entire field. One man only stayed back, and he could either throw a very long pass, a short pass, or suddenly run with it, according to the circumstances. It was a formation which was new and very baffling to Country Day, but they managed to keep Roxbury from scoring, by intelligent defensive work. The Country Day cohorts were jubilant at the victory, and convinced that Country Day can take the league championship next Friday from the husky defenders, Browne and Nichols.

The Country Day line-up was as follows for the Roxbury game: le, Winchell; It, Vose; lg, T. Downes; c, D. Gleason, (Dana); rg, Johnston; rt, Brown; re, Greene; qb, Capt. Bottomley; rhb, F. Gleason, (Cobb); lhb, Ritchie, (E. Downes); fe, Labouchere. This Friday at Cambridge, Country Day's stalwart eleven meets Browne and Nichols for the Championship of the Greater Boston Private Day School League. Browne and Nichols is the defending champion, having won last year 6-0 at Newton. B. and N. has a formidable and heavy team, which has won every game except that with Roxbury Latin. Without Al Marsters and Len Clark the latter a local product, the Dartmouth eleven humbled Brown under a 13 to 6 score last Saturday at Providence. Haroid Andres of Newtonville and Henry Johnson of Waban, both Newton High products, were stars of the game. "Andres, in the line or out of the line, proved once more that he is one of the best centres in the East" is the way one newspaper reports his play. This, despite the leg injury he received during the course of bruising games with Columbia, Harvard and Yale on consecutive Saturdays, Johnson got his chance to start in place of Ed Sutton, regular Green full-back. A blocked kick resulted in Brown scoring in the first period although they failed to make the point after. Passes in the second period carried Dartmouth to a scoring position with Johnson plunging over from the two yard line for the tying score. Morton, subbing for Marsters, kicked the point which put the Hanoverites in the lead, never to be headed. Ernest Hapgood, former Newton star tackle on the same teams with Andres, was at left guard for Brown. Hapgood, the other guard, the centre and the right halfback were the only four Bruins to play the entire game. Andres played through for Dartmouth while Johnson gave way to Sutton. Except for a cut on Johnson's nose the Dartmouth team had no injuries. Johnson is not expected to be out of the game. is not expected to be out of the game. year, however, Country Day should enter the fray a slight favorite, due in part to its recent victory over Roxbury Latin, which defeated B. and N., 6-0 two weeks ago. Incidentally the game will mark the first time that Francis Gleason, star halfback of C. D. is slated to start. For the last three years he has been handicapped by injuries at the time of the B. and N. game, and has been unable to see any action. This year, however, his jinx has left him and he should make life miserable for the Cambridge outfit with his punting, passing and running.

Coach Wiles plans to start the same Country Day line-up that took the field against Roxbury, with the possible exception of Dana at center in place of Donald Gleason who suffered an arm injury last week.

NOT OUTPLAYED

Newton High suffered its third straight defeat last Saturday at the hands of Rindge Technical school in a Suburban league game at Cambridge. The final score was Rindge 14, Newton 7 with the orange and black failing to cash in on two other excellent scoring opportunities. But unlike the two previous defeats the Newton eleven was not outplayed—far from it in fact. Newton chalked up twelve first downs to six for Rindge. Boyle, Saurausky, Wyche and Malisinski were the thorns in the local's side. On the other hand the Newton offence was the best displayed this season and it proved that there is power in the team although consistently latent to date. Elrod, Shorten, Furden and Layton performed well while carrying the ball while the playing of Boughan, Moore, Linberg and Bankart were the best among the forwards. With the exception of their two scores, Rindge never got inside the Newton 30-yard line while Newton was constantly threatening.

First Period

First Period

Elrod kicked off for Newton and within two minutes Rindge had its first touchdown. The feature play was a lateral pass from Boyle to lose on a 45-yard gain with Furden and Norton getting the tackle on the ten yard line. A few plays later Boyle slanted off tackle for the score in and took a pass from Saurausky for the point. Rindge kicked off and Strombom ran the ball back to his 30-yard mark. The Newton attack failed to function and Elrod kicked to midfield. Aided by a Newton off side Rindge made a first down. A lateral to Boyle was stopped for no gain by Elrod. Bankart nailed Saurausky for loss and Newton took the ball on down after an incompleted pass. Shorten got clear for a 20-tyard dash through tackle to start a march for the goal line. On two plays Elrod lost a yard when Maisinski got through the line but a pass from Elrod to Furden for 12-yards put the ball on the 24-yard line. Shorten made five yards on a criss cross and Strombom three. Furden made it first down on the 12-yard line with a four-yard plunge. Here Rindge tightened. Elrod's pass to McCarthy to the 3-yard line was a yard shy and Rindge took the ball there on downs. Saurausky kicked on first down. The period ended two plays session on the Rindge 29-yard line. Second Period

Shorten fumbled and Rindge recovered. Saurausky kicked to Strombom on the Newton 40-yard mark. Elrod split the tackle for 13-yards. Three plays were stopped and Elrod punted, Boyle running back the ball to the Rindge 40-yard stripe. A fake lateral gained eight-yards and a spinner play seven more for a first down. Two laterals gained another 12-yards to the Newton 30-yard line. A short pass from Saurausky to Boyle and clever broken field running by the latter carried him across with the second Rindge touchdown. A pass from Saurausky to Boyle scored the point. Elrod ran the kickoff back 25-yards but the orange and black offence stalled and Elrod kicked. Rindge returned the kick. Mallsinski tossed Shorten for a five-yard loss and on the third down Elrod punted. A four-yard gain at tackle and a Boyle to Gilgun pass made another Rindge first down as the half ended.

There are many solutions suggested for these difficulties, Mr. Dennison, Mr. Filene, and Mr. Henry Ford are pioneers in solving some of them, and other manufacturers are trying also. They are isolated examples, however, and what industry needs is more effort on the part of manufacturers and the community generally. Unemployment means discouragement, and as a result, trouble in family relationships. For this reason, it should be the concern of the whole community, just as much as health or recreational work.

just as much as health or recreational work.

Mr. Raymond suggested several remedies which might be worked out through more general community interest and consequent legislation; 1. Get the facts by giving Federal and State Departments of Labor and Industry more authority to investigate; 2. Establish a system of unemployment exchanges with real service through the schools, and also through public exchanges, paid for by taxes; 3. Stabilize seasonal employment by discounts to customers buying ahead, and by dovetailing employments; 4. Educate employees to their obligations in helping to establish the young and in caring for the old employee; 5. Prosperity reserve for the purpose of keeping the employment reserve even. This means that public building should only go on when private industry is at a standstill; 6. Unemployment insurance; 7. Old age relief.

Mr. Raymond ended by saying that the question needs much study and the backing of the people in the Community before any general solution can be established.

EDUCATION AND ELECTION

The present week has been known as National Education Week throughout the country. Enjoying a school standard that compares favorably with the best in the country Newton has good reason to be proud of its educational opportunities. It is these opportunities that have been, to an appreciable extent, responsible for the rapid growth of our city in the past four years. A growth that cannot halp but redowned to the tent, responsible for the rapid growth of our city in the past few years. A growth that cannot help but redound to the benefit of the entire city. Yet, with this growth comes a proportionate increase in the student registration, necessitating more schools, more teachers, more equipment, and creating one of the biggest problems the aldermen and school committee have to face. It is just as important for the citizens of Newton to elect the men with ability to solve these problems in the best way as it is for them to select a city with good schools in which to live

RED CROSS CAMPAIGN

Have you done your duty? The annual campaign of the National Red Cross is now on. It began on Armistice Day and will continue until Thanksgiving. In times of need there is no agency that does more good than the Red Cross. With the range of membership offered it is possible for every citizen of Newton to join the organization and help in a humane cause. If you have not joined, do so now.

A DIFFERENCE IN TEACHING

A DIFFERENCE IN TEACHING

Parents of children in the Newtonville grade schools have had a wonderful opportunity given them and we hope that all of them have taken advantage of it. During the week mothers have been urged to visit the classrooms and witness the actual methods of teaching. Next week, although the children will not be present, both the fathers and mothers have been invited to attend gatherings in their children's classrooms at a designated time. This is part of an effort to acquain the parents with methods of teaching now used in order that they may be better understood at home. Too often the parent, and in most cases it is the father and not the mother, fails to show that interest in his son's or daughter's training that can be of great value to the youth in later years. In this day and age many people do not realize that changes in educational systems have taken place as well as in practically every other phase of life. Instead of teaching the alphabet by each individual letter the system used teaches the youthful mind how to spell and pronounce by the association of letters as words. A new method of arithmetic has supplanted that taught a decade or more ago. The same result is accomplished but by a more adjusted and simpler route. or more ago. The same result is accomplished but by a more direct and simpler route.

THE AUTO EXCISE TAX

The action of the Newton board of aldermen in seeking to correct the injustice caused by a "double" and "triple" automobile excise tax will meet with the approval of many citizens. These citizens who traded in their cars registered before April 1st for other cars that were registered later than that date received a second excise tax bill. A sixty day limit was allowed for application for abatement but most of those "stung" did not realize that this applied to an exchange of cars.

ADDITIONAL TRAFFIC OFFICERS

Last year officers of the Norumbega Council of Boy Scouts and the Newton Chief of Police co-operated on the idea and put into effect the plan of having members of the various scout put into effect the plan of having members of the various scout troops act as traffic officers at street crossings near the schools prior to and immediately after the school sessions. A police officer was detailed to take charge of the group of scouts and instruct them in handling traffic. Results were more than satisfactory. This year the squad of scouts has been increased to about forty and they are rendering an important service. One of the arguments used by opponents of the idea at the time the plan was inaugurated was that the immature judgment of the boys would be against it. This has been disproved emphatically. Evidence that the drivers of automobiles are co-operating with the scouts in attempting to prevent acment of the boys would be against it. This has been disproved emphatically. Evidence that the drivers of automobiles are co-operating with the scouts in attempting to prevent accidents is seen in the fact that an almost negligible number of cases of failure to obey the scouts have been reported.

THE BIRTHPLACE OF LINCOLN

From the picture of the shabby log cabin above, it can be clearly seen what poverty Lincoln suffered. There was nothing of the pomp and splendor about him that surrounded Washington and the other wealthy Presidents. This cabin has been destroyed, but a monument has been erected where it stood.

The 18th Amendment was evolved and placed in the Constitution of the U. S. A.

Chauncy M. Depew, who, when asked 'When the 18th Amendment will be repealed,' answered, 'Never, Why? Women!' "

The meeting closed with the admonition, "Have faith in God and keep on working."

The guest speaker of the day was Raymond T. Pierce of the Old Colony Trust Company who spoke on investment problems and their solution and directed the attention of his hearers to errors commonly made in selecting investments by those who proceed without proper advice. He showed how the changes in transportation and other lines of endeavor during the last generation had effected changes in the economic structure and had eliminated some lines of business as safe investments. He gave the club members some practical rules to govern them generally in the matter of selecting investments and at the close of his address was given a vote of thanks by the club for a practical and instructive talk.

November 11th, Armistice Day, was not without event among the Newton Girl Scouts. Newton Highlands chose that date to hold the Dedication Service for their new cabin at Camp Mary Day. At 2:30 P. M. Louise Kerr of Troop 11, played Assembly, and the flag ceremony followed, a new American flag having been presented by Mr. Ralph Emery. Mrs. Walter Godsoe, Chairman of the Newton Highlands Troop Committee, welcomed the guests who were parents and friends of Newton Highlands Scouts, Troop Committee, Council Members and Captains, and Scouts from Troop 11, 21, and 26. Mrs. Godsoe presented the key to the cabin to Mrs. Walton S. Redfield, Chairman of the Newton Camp Committee, who in turn gave one to her bedecked with pine cones the emblem of the Highlands Troops. Mrs. Redfield also gave to Mrs. Godsoe a 99 year lease of the cabin and an attractive certificate from the Newton Local Council and Camp Committee. Mrs. Raymond R. Collins, the first Newton Highlands Captain, then told the story of how the cabin finally came into being. Miss Caroline L. Freeman, Director for Newton, then spoke about Camp Mary Day itself, and welcomed the new cabin! The guests then scattered to inspect the cabin and all that goes to make camp camp. Newton Highlands is very grateful to Mr. Earl G. Manning who is giving the fireplace in the cabin; his daughter was formerly a Scout, and is now away at college. During the afternoon, cheers were led by Cornelia Brown, of Troop 25, and at 3:30, Bet-very contractive to the corneries with Tang. November 11th, Armistice Day, was

The Newton Bugle and Drum Corps will hold its first meeting for the 1929-30 season, Saturday, November 23, at the West Newton Armory, with Mrs. Walton S. Redfield as Captain once more.

NEW CLUB

On November 18th, a new club will be added to the Business Girls' and Women's Department of the Boston Y. W. C. A. This new group will consist of fifty girls from Newton. They are already organized, with Miss Margaret Bauer, of 77 Erie street, Newton Highlands, as their president. On Monday night they will gather weekly on the sixth floor of the new activities building, at 140 Clarendon street, for a supper party and club meeting. Since the opening of fall activities in this one department alone, over 1200 girls and women have been in attendance at club meetings. Of this number, over 400 have enjoyed the supper parties.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR NEWS

Starting with a fine supper served by the ladies of the church, the November meeting of the Norumbega Christian Endeavor Union was held last Tuesday night at the Lincoln Park Baptist Church, West Newton, when Russell J. Blair, field secretary of the Massachusetts C. E. Union, told of his work throughout the State. He was assisted by three members of the Mass. C. E. Union who led the Endeavorers in departments conferences. Bessie McCassie, Missionary Chairman of Norumbega Union, gave a brief talk on the work of her department. The Scripture was read by Rev. John Shade Franklin, Lincoln Park Baptist Church, after which Rev. John Scanlon of the Weston Baptist Church offered a short prayer. The new Fellowship award, a silver loving cup, was presented for the month to the Belmont M. E. Church, the attendance shield being awarded to the same group of Endeavorers. Following the meeting the young people enjoyed a short social period with refreshments.

The next regular meeting of the West Newton W. C. T. U. will be held Monday evening, November 18, at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Ella Mercer, 1919 Watertown street, West Newton. Please bring donations for the Thanksgiving baskets.

Prof. Kirtley F. Mather delivered the second of his series of lectures on the trend of modern science at the regular weekly meeting of the Mather Class last Sunday morning at the Newton Centre Woman's Club House. His subject was "The Nature of Energy."

In the changing current of modern thought the purpose of this series of lectures is to review the results of modern scientific investigation. The lectures themselves, at the rate of one a month, will not have a definitely religious significance except as everything in the world has religious significance and we want to discover the facts on which to establish a firm basis for our religious faith. In the lecture last month it was basis for our religious faith.

In the lecture last month it was seen that matter is not ultimate reality, but the product of something that went before. It is an effect and not a cause. It is not eternal. It can be created and it can be destroyed or so modified that it can no longer be called matter.

It should be carefully borne in mind that the conclusions of science are far form being certainties. They are merely highly probable.

Matter is an expression of energy.

refusing to patronize the poor ones.

Of the 14 pictures reviewed in this issue of the Review it is arresting to note that only four are mentioned as "for the whole family". The first, a "good comedy" and "amusing", is "Wise Girls" a M-G-M picture, story of a plumber who is sent to a home to repair some faulty plumbing but becomes very much involved in the affairs of the family.

The second is "a good western that Matter is an expression of energy. We do not understand the real essence of energy. We know more or less about it and can describe what it loes. We want to know as much as we can find out about it.

We have the energy of electricity. Press a button and the room is flooded with light.

There is mechanical energy, illus-trated by the coiled spring of the alarm clock, able to do work.

The energy of the raised weight is shown in the grandfather's clock. This is the energy of position. Chemical energy appears in gun-owder, coal, and oil.

Energy of motion is exemplified by the rifle bullet and the moving auto-whose love affair does not run smoothly.

The less satisfying comment of "harmless for children", is applied to "The Big Jewel Case", an Educational, story of wealthy people who disguise themselves to test the courage and trustworthiness of their servants, to whom they have entrusted jewels, after deciding to go on a vacation. "A fairly good comedy." In the same category, with the comment, "all right for children", there is "The Golden Bridle", a Universal, western melodrama, "very good in parts".

Frankly "unsuitable for children", is the comment on "The Delightful Rogue", an RKO; "The Locked Door", a United Artist; "The Racketeer", a Pathe; and "Saturday Night Kid", a Paramount. Almost as convincing in being unsuitable, although the comment on "all right for adults and the molecules that makes the cold solid, the warm liquid, and the not make the comment on the

ONE THING AND ANOTHER By L. D. G. BENTLEY

Why are the women of Newton so diffident in the matter of running for public office? Can it be they have no confidence in the judgment of the voters or do they prefer that the men should hold all elective positions?

In vain have I studied the lists of

In vain have I studied the lists of those who are candidates for Mayor and the Board of Aldermen at the city election next month for the name of some member of the fair sex with an ambition to rule or assist in ruling the city. Are they shy? Or what is the trouble? Certainly nobody can say they are not competent. That would, be a ridiculous statement. Prof. Rogers, he of "snob" fame, tells us politics is distasteful to women or something like that. Maybe he knows, but I am not satisfied with that explanation. I have the pleasure of talking with women who enjoyed political discussions and whose views were not only sound but illuminating. So far as mental resources are concerned I In vain have I studied the lists of mental resources are concerned only sound but illuminating. So far as mental resources are concerned I wouldn't say they were not qualified to hold public office. Rather I should say that many of them had superior qualities for the job.

As a matter of fact the more I am convinced that there are subjects that come before the city fathers which the city mothers could handle not only as well but perhaps better. Take the matter of bare legs which agitated that energetic and determined chief executive of the neighboring city of Lynn and caused him to warn girls and women not to dare appear on the streets with bare legs. He was, as far as I know, perfectly sincere in this ruling which got him so much page one publicity. But isn't that very question, for instance, better left with women? I mean with a Mayoress, for instance? Of course it is, since the legs that caused the worry and stress were feminine. Possibly Newton feels that in this matter the principles of the Constitution of the United States are still firm and that all legs and arms and heads, bobbed and otherwise, stand free and equal.

But there are other topics and problems in which the women should have a voice and that voice need not necessarily be exercised in the home exclusively. Let it be lifted in the seats of the mighty at West Newton. Why not?

There are many public library patrons among the readers of this column, I find. A former Newton resident writes from New York: "I have read what you say about people in public libraries. It puts a sad and solemn truth so cleverly that you cannot help laughing at it. But it is no laughing matter. The next time you hit on that topic pay your respects, in my behalf, to the bird that perches his chin on your shoulder while you are trying to read a newspaper on the standing files.

The president of the Massachusetts Senate, Hon. Gaspar G. Bacon, told the owner voters before whom he spoke last Tuesday that improper lobbying must be stopped "so far as it is carried on in the State House over which we have jurisdiction." I can understand why the Senator wishes to have those who resort to unscrupulous the is not going to put up with it at the coming session.

Perhaps the readers of this column will forgive a personal allusion. I ask them to indulge me, for the reads that Senator Bacon said what I have several times in this space tried to set forth. His words I would respect to the correct. The buttonholing of members in the halls often reacts against the ardent solicitor and does more harm than good. No man likes to be correct. Full opportunity to present all sides of every question will allways be given by committees. The mails can be and are used for the dissemination of propaganda."

Apparently the president of the upper branch of the Legislature is convinced that something is wrong. It am sure that he is sincere. Furthermore I believe that he is entitled to assistance. By the latter I mean that every voter should weigh what the Senator says and observe it. I hope it they may.

Now my reason for urging all voters to do their lobbying like ladies and gentlemen is that it will remove any start their jobs hard for them. The members of the General Court are succeeded by Mrs. George F, Hennri-king that they are pulled and hauled in a way that is not legitimate by persons who are high-minded but obsessed with a belief that the cause which they espouse warrants any kind of tactics.

If the people are at fault in this regard—I mean this promoting or obstructing of legislation which Senator and the promoting or condemns—let those on the outside do their part by refraining from such practices as he deplores. By keeping our own slate clean we give the legislators no comeback to do ur criticism of them.

The Lawco Incinerator is perforated in the bottom, as well as in the sides, but the holes are not large enough to allow sparks and flames to endanger property or grounds; at the same time, on account of the Incinerator being raised from the ground, the holes in the bottom and sides give sufficient draught to completely burn up papers and other refuse and will burn garbage if dried sufficiently.

This Incinerator has a tight cover over the top, which must be left open for burning but closed to keep the contents dry to allow for complete combustion.

Most Scouts Ever in Council

Today Norumbega Council, the city of Newton, has more Scouts than it has ever had before in its history!
The highest point before this date was in 1921, when the Council then comprised Newton, Needham and Wellesley. There were then 563 Scouts in Norumbega Council. In 1925, 2 years prior to the Council re-organization, on a basis approved by the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America, Needham and Wellesley withdrew. At the present time there are about 350 men in Newton actively interested and working for and in the Council during the year, at one time or another, in one job or another. At the time of the re-organization, there were about 75 men. The increase in boy and man strength in Newton Scouting since the re-organization has been tremendous and almost beyond belief!

Camping

Over the last week-end Troop 4-A reported to the Council Headquarters that they were planning a trip to Monadnock over the week-end and requesting the necessary permission to make such a trip. It was of course stranted and Troop 4-A's beach-wagon (Ford) started off on its trip on Saturday. While there has been no report to date, the Scouts under Mr. Lichtenthaeler, as ever, had a most wonderful trip, camping on their old favorite site on that mountain.

Newtonville Church Receives Fine Gift

Beautiful Painting Presented to

The Newtonville Methodist Episcopal Church has received from generous donors a copy of Davinci's great work, "The Last Supper." This painting is the work of H. W. Chaloner, Artist, Master of Architectural and Figure Drawing. On the canvas 9 ft. by 16 ft. is the copy of one of the world's great masterpieces. The Boston Artist spent more than three years in skilful, painstaking, artistic workmanship to reproduce in color one of the greatest monuments of creative genius.

The political situation in Newton livens up as the election date approaches. Mayor Childs comes out with a strong endorsement of Alderman William E. Earle and asserts that he will assist him to the finish of the fight. Ex-Alderman George M. Heathcote took out nomination papers for Mayor Tuesday morning, at City Hall. The campaign management of Alderman C. Sincliar Weeks has published in this week's Newton papers the names of the general committee in the seven wards of this city who are working for Mr. Weeks' success at the polls. Included in the list are the names of a number of former staunch supporters of Mayor Childs. Nomination papers were filed yesterday for Albert J. Mansfield of 579 Centre street, Newton. He will oppose James P. Akins of Lewis street for the office of Alderman-at-Large from Ward 1. Mr. Mansfield is engaged in the printing business. Another candidate has been added to the list who will contest for the office of Ward Alderman from Ward 5, making five. Alfred G. Kerr of 21 Coyneroad, Waban, has announced his candidacy. Mr. Kerr has resided in Waban for 30 years, is married and has two children. He is a graduate of the Roger Woloctt School of Waban, has conducted a plumbing business for the past 13 years, and is vice president of the Newton Master Plumbers Association.

PLAY FINAL GAME AT BROOKLINE

The annual Thanksgiving Day foot all game between the Newton and srookline high school teams will be layed the holiday morning on the Brookline Field. It had been previsly announced that the game would staged at Nickerson Field, River-le, Boston University's athletic field. be staged at Nickerson Field, Riverside, Boston University's athletic field. Two weeks ago when the officials of both schools went to the field to plan for the printing of tickets for the game it was found that the seating capacity was limited to about 3050 and not 5000 as the Boston University authorities had stated. Four hundred of these seats are well beyond the end of the playing field and are practically valueless from which to witness a football game. It was then lecided to transfer the game to Brookine for the third consecutive year. It will mark the falling of the curtain on the 1929 football season for both schools, neither of which has a very good record. But regardless of the outcome of their previous games it will be a game well worth seeing.

The championship of the Suburban league has been practically won by Semerville with four victories in five.

will be a game well worth seeing.

The championship of the Suburban league has been practically won by Somerville with four victories in five games to its credit. Next Thursday the Dickerman coached eleven takes on Rindge Tech and should the latter win the Somerville team can do no worse than wind up in a top place tie for the league title. Rindge, handicapped by the loss of Boyle, its starback, because of having reached his 20th birthday the week following the Newton game, is the underdog of the game. If Rindge loses to Somerville it will give Everett a chance to jumpinto second place by defeating Cambridge Latin. The latter team has yet to win a game, not only in the league but for the season, but Everett will not have an easy time as Cambridge Latin has been a jinx for Everett for some years. Thus the only thing at stake in the Newton-Frookline game outside of the satisfaction of winning is fourth place. Newton is in that position at present but only a solitary point above the Wealthy Towners. If Brookline wins their positions will be reversed.

Fighting its way to a smashing 19-0 victory over Browne and Nichols at Cambridge, last Friday, Country Day's powerful eleven took undisputed possession of the championship of the Private Day School League of Greater Boston for 1929. This decisive victory over its ancient rivals, particularly sweet in view of last year's 6-0 defeat, brings to a close one of the most outstanding seasons in the football history of the famous institution on the hill. With but the 7-0 deteat at the hands of the strong Milton Academy contingent marring its record, with the Private Day School title under its belt, and with both the second and third varsities undefeated this fall, Country Day can truly boast of an exceptional season. Head coach Howard R. Wiles, assisted by Malcolm Clarke, have worked hard with their charges this fall, and the results must be very gratifying. Fighting its way to a smashing 19-0

Miss Bragg Tells Of New Education

Newtonville Parents Learn of Mod-

Shakespeare's boy, whining and lagging on his journey to school, was a long ways from Newtonville Wednesday evening as 200 fathers, 300 mothers, and 33 teachers gathered in the Adams, Claffin, and Horace Mann schools.

"The youngster made me promise schools.

"The youngster made me promise to come for a few minutes, and I've been here two hours." "I never understood what you were driving at before." "Why don't we do this more often?" Such were the comments of parents who came to "visit school" and stayed to study education. Beyond illustration after illustration of regular work, there was little to attract; but on every hand were examples of the differences between the old and the new in teaching—and these changes were especially striking to several who had themselves attended school in these same buildings.

Each parent found on his child's desk samples of the work he had been doing this fall and about the walls were evidences of the nature and quality of accomplishment for that room at this time of year. The new types of books, especially the new texts in Reading and English, were displayed. Elsewhere were progress charts covering everything from spelling to sleep, and on the tables were maps, models, and "museums" used in English, Geography, History, and even Arithmetic. Each room had its own particular manifestation of Education as applied in a modern public school system—buying a house and budgeting expenses in Newtonville, a study of aviation, feeding and clothing refugees, the post office, stores and cafeterias, weighing doils and football squads, and outfitting scouts, and so on through twenty or more projects.

I have all confidence in you. You have been my friend since boyhood days. I have watched you grow. We have worked together, played together and even gone to church together. You have also been my loyal supporter and helper ever since I entered political life.

If the voters of Newton give you the opportunity, I believe that you will give to them the same sort of service as Mayor which you have given all these years as an Aldermah and as Chairman of that most important committee, Public Works.

I want to pledge to you at this and "the Banks."

Miss Bragg acted as interpreter of the New, and in a brief talk, packed with illustration and enthusiasm, the things they had glimpsed in the rooms. And finally, the Education

Hazop could qualify as a member of the "hammer club" because in a brawl at the Saco-Lowell shops at Newton Upper Falls the other day he hit two shopmates with a hammer, narrowly missing knocking the eye of one of his victims. One of them had four stitches taken in his scalp and the other only had to have one stitch taken. In court Wednesday Kervokian was sentenced to a year in jail for getting so rough. He appealed and was held in $2000 bail.

The courage and determination of Motorcycle Officer Edward Koen of Police Station 14 at Brighton was responsible for the capture of four alleged burglars and the recovery of women's clothing valued at several thousands of dollars. Early Sunday morning as Koen was at Oak Square, Brighton, a car came along with no headlights showing. Koen whistled for it to stop but the driver speeded up and fied towards Brighton at a rate of 70 miles an hour. Koen opened the throttle of his cycle to its widest but could not gain on the fugitives. Going through Brighton the car was driven directly at two policemen who attempted to stop it. Koen continued the chase through Allston and Cottage Farm without catching up with the flying automobile which narrowly missed hitting other cars and milk wagons as it speeded along at the reckless pace. Near Kemmore Square in Boston the pursued car sideswiped another machine, got out of control, hurtled through a fence into a vacant lot and tipped from his cycle and captured two of the cocupants of the car at pistol opened the throttle of his cycle to its widest but could not gain on the figitives. Koen, who was close behind, leaped from his cycle and captured two of the occupants of the car at pistol point. The other two were captured by Sergeant Wilkins and Patrolman Corbett of Station 16, Back Bay, who happened to be nearby and rushed to the scene. Those captured were James Kelly, 19, 913 Dorchester avenue, South Boston, driver of the car; Albert Croft, 22, 2 Webb Park, South Boston, Arthur Elliott, 22, 88 Boston street, South Boston, driver of the car; Albert Croft, 22, 2 Webb Park, South Boston, Jarde Bacon held each in $20,000 bail for appearance in court Wednesday. In default of bail the four were held prisoners at Newton police headquarters not each a hearing and were held in $10,000 bail each for the Grand Jury. They were taken to the jail at Cambridge. Judge Bacon called Motorcycle officer Koen to the bench and complimented him for his bravery in pursuing and capturing the prisoners.

Father And Son Night At Newtonville

More than one hundred and fifty athers and sons attended the Annual Boys' Night dinner at the Newton-ville Methodist Church last Saturday evening, November 16th.

From the first note of the Bugle and Drum Corps of Troop No. 1, Boy Scouts, Newtonville, until the last Dad and son had shaken the hand of Major Mawe the evening was voted a complete success.

Promptly at 6:30 p. m. the Bugle and Drum Corps of Troop No. 1. Newtonville, played a rousing martial air as they marched into the dining rooms. A real Turkey Dinner with "trimmings" to delight the heart of any boy was ably served by the young ladies of the church. Certain observers say on good authority that Sectonds on Pumpkin Pie were ordered with amazing frequency. But this was the one night in the year when paternal admonitions went for naught—this was the Boys' Night—let tomorrow take care of its own tummy aches.

The "get-to-gether" spirit was evilenced soon after the Rev. Ted Evans, eader of song for the evening had he crowd lustily singing the well-mown favorites of close harmony. Several specialties were introduced by this versatile and talented leader and the audience co-operated whole heart-

A Major in the British Army, he was in command of the Gallipoli Campaign in the World War. On his return to England, he became interested in boys and later was sent to South Africa as head of the Boy Scouts there. He also had charge of the jamboreee of the Boy Scouts at Birkenhead, England, last summer. His talk was interesting, instructive and highly entertaining. The great Fellowship of Scouts, and the international feeling of good will being aided and abetted tremendously by the rapid growth of the Scout Movement were subjects close to the Major's heart and he dwelt upon them most eloquently.

interest in financial matters.

Mrs. Hutchinson and Mr. Richardson presented some further data on the problems of owning and financing a home in response to the questions asked often at last week's meeting.

The speaker of the morning was Mr. F. Winchester Denio, one of the vice presidents of the Old Colony Trust Company who gave a very concrete, helpful talk on "Settling a Typical Estate."

Typical Estate."

By the use of the "case system" Mr. Denio traced the steps necessary to the settling of one particular estate. From the standpoint of a bank acting as an corporate fiduciary, he explained the advisability of delay in paying outstanding bills; the ability of the bank to hire an expert appraiser more economically than the individual could hire him; the safety of the securies which have been devocated in a bank; the knowledge the of the securies which have been de posited in a bank; the knowledge the bank officials have of the intric of federal and state inheritance and their ability to withstand th portunities of beneficiaries to speculative stocks.

In return for this technical and expert knowledge the compensation of 212% of the personal property involved seems a very just one.

Mr. Denio felt convinced of the wisdom of having sufficient life in surance to cover the inheritance and income taxes levied on an estate without having to sell securities at a sacrifice to pay them when due.

THANKSGIVING

Three hundred and eight years ago our New England ancestors gave Thanks that their first crops had been fruitful. cestors gave Thanks that their first crops had been fruitful. Every year thereafter it became a custom for the various colonies to set aside one day for this purpose. General Washington designated Thursday, Nov. 26th, 1789 as Thanksgiving Day in his Proclamation of that year. Until the Civil War it was merely a state affair. In 1864 President Lincoln issued a proclamation appointing the fourth Thursday in November thereafter as a national Thanksgiving Day. This rule almost ceased to exist after his assassination but the chief executives of the pation, who succeeded Abraham Lincoln renewed it. If the nation who succeeded Abraham Lincoln renewed it. If the Puritans, with all the hardships and the handicaps that filled their lives, were moved to give thanks, how much more have we in this present day for which to be thankful. While a turkey dinner and "all the fixin's" is the usual feature of Thanksgiving Day, let us pause a moment and think of the real meaning be-

A LONG AWAITED IMPROVEMENT

The replacement of trolley cars with terminals at Newton Corner by busses removed much of the danger and slowing up of automobile traffic in that section. The covering of the old tracks from the traffic tower to a point opposite the bank building and the removal of the tracks from that point westerly to Channing street is another step in a long-awaited improvement. Although much temporary inconvenience has been caused it will be worth it in the end. It is planned to resurface only the

Although much temporary inconvenience has been caused it will be worth it in the end. It is planned to resurface only the portion of the street where the tracks were. This will mean that sooner or later parking privileges will again have to be restricted, traffic diverted, and more inconvenience caused, while the sides of the street are being repaired. It is reasonable to assume that the cost of doing it all now would be somewhat less than it will eventually cost.

THE ELIOT MEMORIAL

A letter to the editor in another column calls attention to a sad state of conditions existing at the Eliot Memorial. It is deplorable that the Garden City of the state should neglect one of its most historical memorials. Newton has much to be proud of, but unless these conditions are remedied before the Tercentenary celebration, which will undoubtedly bring many visitors from other cities and states to this spot, a very poor impression will be made. While it is not too late to correct the situation, provision should be made to keep this and similar places in proper condition at all times.

ORGANIZING THE VOTERS

The formation of an organization to be known as the Newton Public Officers Election Committee is a step in the right direction. Every citizen should be registered, should vote and should know the qualifications of the various candidates for office, induce the residents of the city to get registered and to vote—in short, to increase the interest of the average citizen in city elections. In the past few years the population of Newton has neared, and perhaps surpassed the 60,000 mark. The number of registered voters is slightly over 30,000. Many are still not registered voters is slightly over 30,000. Many are still not registered voters is slightly over 30,000. Many are still not registered voters is slightly over 30,000. "WELL DONE"

The late John A. Fenno, whose death this week it is our sad duty to record, had a long, useful, and honorable life, both in business circles and in community service. Mr. Fenno was one of those far-sighted members of our city government of thirty-five to forty years ago who brought about the installation of our sewerage system, the laying out of Commonwealth avenue, and the abolition of grade crossings on the main line of the Boston & Albany. It is to such men as Mr. Fenno that the city owes its present high standard of municipal service. He richly deserves the scriptural encomium of "Well Done."

RIVALRY

The football season is approaching the end of the 1929 season. The big games of the season are on and the rivalry is intense. Much has been said on the overemphasis given to the gridiron sport. Like everything else it can be carried to extremes. On the other hand the value that comes to a young athlete by participation in team and individual sports is great. Of course it is an honor and a credit to be a member of a mnionshin squad but it is just as much a test of character on the losing side. the field in adversity than it does when everything is breaking your way. And many a team has fought its way to victory with the aid of traditional rivalry.

Order of Polish King

A remarkable performance by a bak-ery in 1730 is exhibited by an old drawing of that time. It was the baking, for the king of Poland, of an immense cake or loaf, by the master baker Zacharius of Dresden, in an oven at Zeithain. It required 1,800 quarts of wheat flour, one and a half barrels of yeast, 326 quarts of milk, 3,-600 eggs and three pounds of nutmegs. The cake, which was about 36 feet long and 16 feet wide, was kneaded on a huge sliding draw plate, which was rolled into the oven by chains. The oven, which was of tremendous size for those times, was heated from underneath and had 12 chimneys.

When the cake was baked it was rolled out of the oven loaded onto a long wagon and hauled by eight horses from the bakery at Zeithain to the headquarters of the review at Rade-The special knife used for cutting it was 20 feet long.

Cow's Ability to Jump

Heralded as Discovery A discovery was recently made by a regular contributor to a famous Lon-don daily paper. A discovery that is really old news to every farmer. He has found out that "cows can jump." he writes, "that cows, in spite of their ungainly shape, can jump almost as well as horses? I had evidence of this the other afternoon, when I saw a herd of ten or fifteen cows, evidently just escaped from their pastures, come stampeding across a field of young corn. A heated and furious cowherd pursued them, and by dint of much shouting and waving of arms turned them toward the hedge that bordered them toward the hedge that bordered the field. As the cows reached it they rose in turn and jumped, taking it as neatly as a hunter. Everyone landed safely, and trotted away to finish her neglected meal."

A heavy sale was blowing and the steamer was making very heavy weather of it. After a huge sea had swept the deck, a Scottish passenge went up to one of the officers and asked him if he really thought the ship was going to sink.

"I hope not!" said the officer, "but surely an old man like you is not afraid to die?" "it's no that exactly," said the pas-senger, "but ye see I just purchased a plot o' ground in ma local cemetery an' it seems to me as if it's going to be a terrible waste o' siller!"-Detroi

Dog's Double Life An interesting trait is the Jekyll and Hyde existence led by many sheepdogs, always regarded by us as gentle, man-serving creatures. when they take to sheep killing, de velop a cunning so extraordinary that they remain by day the perfectly faith-ful servants of their masters, carefulshepherding his flocks; yet, at ny snepaerung ins nocks; yet, ar nightfall, they transform themselves into villains and steal forth to murder their victims, returning before dawn. Strange to say, a "killer" dog, never slaughters sheep of his own flock. He always ravages the neighbors'.

When Rome was besieged in 536 A. D. by the Goths, the fourteen via ducts which supplied the city with water were cut off. Because of the proximity of the river Tiber the danger ground grain were operated by water wheels. To overcome this danger mills were placed between two rafts se curely fastened in the river. It is said that the first motion pic tures were received in New York with very little enthusiasm. They were presented in 1896 at Koster and Bial's presented in 1896 at Koster and Bial's Music hall on Sixth avenue. The audience was apparently under the impression that they were a trick advance of some kind in shadowgraphy, which was then very popular. The first movie audience was even more critical than a modern first night crowd and did not even deign to applaud.

A Witcherait Frial

Two things—a period of reckless gambling and a wave of hysteria.

President Hoover suggests that war should be made more humane, that the blockade, which uses starvation as a weapon in war, striking at women and children, be stopped.

The League of Nations dislikes this idea. It says that if you stop blockading and starving you take away the league's most valuable weapon.

The big idea was to boycott and ockade any nation that went to war

SALVATION ARMY CAMPAIGN

The play, "The Adventures of Grandpa," which was staged Friday and Saturday, Nov. 15 and 16, at I. O. O. F. Hall, 15 Southgate park, West Newton, is reported as a decided success by those who witnessed it. The action of the play takes place in the Reception Room of a Dancing School in Chicago, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Tod Hunter (J. Garfield Anderson of Waltham and Gladys A. Kidder of West Newton). Tod's college chum, Monte Ray (Donald P. Frail of West Newton), comes to them for help. His. "Grandpa" (Fred E. Perkins of West Newton) believes him married, has in creased his allowance to $6000 a year on that account, and is coming to Chicago to see his wife. Now, Monte is not married as he has quarreled with his sweetheart, Dorothy May (Phlora G. Hubbard of Newton), and he asks Tod to lend him his wife, Lucy, while Grandpa is here which is only for a few hours. Tod grudgingly consents and, as the cook is ill, masquerades as the cook. Grandpa arrives; so does the fat Mrs. Pansy Hopscotch (Marjorie P. Waban Woman's Club

ACTIVITIES OF EDUCATION COMMITTEE. Wednesday afternoon, November 13th, the entire session at the Angier school in the elementary grades was devoted to a demonstration of teaching methods used in the first three grades. This was done at the request of the Education committee of the Waban Woman's Club, in order to give the parents and all others interested a comprehensive idea of the present-day methods used. This meeting, which was attended by many parents, was felt by all to be most helpful. It is planned to have a similar afternoon later on in the year to show methods used in the fourth fifth, and sixth grades, illustrating the working methods used in beginning the Social Studies such as history and geography.

The committee will hold four morning discussion meetings, at the homes of the members of the committee, for the purpose of bringing up subjects of interest to the parent. The discussion will be based on reviews of current books and magazines pertaining to the matter for study.

This committee has for its chairman Mrs. Alexander I. MacMillan and the members are Mrs. John M. Bierer (representing the Boy Scouts), Mrs.
Samuel T. Douglas, Mrs. Robert W.
Estabrook, Mrs. Wilfred O. White
(representing the Girl Scouts), Mrs.
Karl R. Kennison, Mrs. Herman J. Petthingill, Jr., and Mrs. John A. Willard.

This unusual enterprise along educational lines is a decidedly practical one and of real value to citizens, therefore one in the inauguration of which by the Education committee, the club and the city may well take pride.

The house was most attractive, antiques were featured, and corners were given over to scenes, illustrating: "Music," by Mrs. Leroy Guion at the accordion and Miss Ellen Guion with her violin; "Spinning," by Mrs. Kendal A. Woodrough; and "The Family," by Mrs. E. A. Howe and Mrs. Oliver Smith.

An impromptu program was enjoyed. Mrs. D. A. Richardson sang most pleasingly the following: A Love Song, by Margaret Lang. "An Irish Love Song," and "Comin' through the Rye."

Mr. Edward W. Pope, who has lived on Hunnewell Hill for about forty years, gave a graphic description of the almost vacant streets of early days. He lent quite a touch of excitement when he told about Dr. Claf

Mrs. Adelbert Fernald, dressed as Dolly Madison, gave a vivid account of her glacier hike in Rainier Park, Washington.

Then a Scotch 'Highlander descended the stairway, and was introduced as "Angus McPherson" of Glasgow, Scotland. He entertained with songs and stories of his native land.

The guests were then invited to the dining-rooms, where Mrs. Frederick E. Harwood was the mistress of ceremonies. The refreshments were quite as old-fashioned as the costumes of the women which resulted in much admiration and mirth.

Many thanks were extended to Mrs. Ronald Jones, Group leader, and to Mrs. H. A. Davis for her delightful hospitality in one of the original homes on Hunnewell Hill.

The regular meeting of the Newton Community Club was held on November 14th at Underwood School Hall, with the president, Mrs. Henry P. Curtiss, presiding. Several announcements were made, among them the notice of a hike on Thursday, November 21st, at 10 o'clock, and a Food Sale by Groups S and 9 following the next meeting on December 12th.

The president introduced Mrs. Ray A. Eusden and Mrs. V. A. Anderson, who gave several pleasing selections on the violin and piano. The afternoon was devoted to dramatics by Club members, Mrs. Van Courtland Lawrence, chairman; and proved a great drawing card as the large audience indicated.

The first play, "A Nephew of the House," was most amusing and entertaining, and the characters extremely well portrayed. Mrs. Richard Lee as "Linda"; Mrs. Ralph Flathers, as "Mary," were charmingly attractive and o'd-fashioned, and their lines brought forth much laughter. Mrs. William Faweett, as "Jack," showed herself to be very versatile in her dual role of a lovely modern girl and an ultra moderh boy, whose dialogue and behavior were comical and ludicrous. The address of the evening will be given by the Honorable Herbert Parker, former Attorney-General and now Chairman of the Special Tercentenary Commission appointed by Governor Allen. ONE THING AND ANOTHER By L. D. G. BENTLEY

When I think of Thanksgiving I tion. If we agree to do our Christmas picture a white farm house a bit off the road, with just to the side of it a large red barn. I see wide fields from which the harvest has been gathered but which still look as if in the Summer they might present a stretch of fertile gardens or a great crop of clover scented hay. I can also imagine a large tree in the front yard, the centre of a grass plot around which circles the drive.

This farm house of my dreams has the time to do not consider the form the properties of the daily news, will be interested in the tiple I have to tell may be as were the first that the I have to tell may be as well be interested in the stale I have to tell may be as well be a second to the constant of the subject to the subj

This farm house of my dreams has small panes of glass in the windows through which one may view from the road geraniums in bloom that have been carefully watered and tended, showing that the women folks love flowers and are skilful at growing things. Though I cannot see further into the house I am sure there are braided mats on the floors, a big fireplace before which snoozes Towser, while not so far from him is Tabby, curled up to get the benefit of the roaring fire and still out of the way of passing feet.

This column:

Dear Mr. Bentley:—Feeling that you has a keen-sensed chronicler of the daily news, will be interested in the tale I have to tell, may I ask you kindly news, will be interested in the tale I have to tell, may I ask you kindly news, will be interested in the tale I have to tell, may I ask you kindly news, will be interested in the tale I have to tell, may I ask you kindly news, will be interested in the tale I have to tell, may I ask you kindly news, will be interested in the tale I have to tell, may I ask you kindly news, will be interested in the tale I have to tell, may I ask you kindly news, will be interested in the tale I have to tell, may I ask you kindly news, will be interested in the tale I have to tell, may I ask you kindly news, will be interested in the tale I have to tell, may I ask you kindly news, will be interested in the tale I have to tell, may I ask you kindly news, will be interested in the tale I have to tell, may I ask you kindly news, will be interested in the tale I have to tell, may I ask you kindly news, will be interested in the tale I have to tell, may I ask you kindly news, will be interested in the tale I have to tell, may I ask you kindly news, will be interested in the tale I have to tell, may I ask you kindly news, will be interested in the tale I have to tell, may I ask you kindly news, will be interested in the tale I have to tell

If I were to be invited to lift the latch I should carefully wipe my shoes, hang my hat and coat and muffer on a peg, walk in and warm my hands at the hearth and then draw up a rocking chair and sit down. I know I should look around and see the old style prints and mottoes on the wall, the portrait of the grandparents now passed on and the framed diploma from the local academy awarded as a youth to the gray-haired man who sits opposite me.

is should look around and see the old style prints and motioes on the walt the portrait of the grandparents now passed on and the framed diplomation of the part of the grandparents now passed on and the framed as a youth to the gray-haired man whits opposite me.

I feel that I should make friends with Towser, if permitted by him, and that I would want to know about all the members of the family, how theyleld had been and what one and all were doing. There you would find all expectancy and appetite when the call came to dinner. Once face to face with the monster gobbler I would salute him as he rested on the platter and await the wielding of my host's carving knife. I would pass my plate until I had received my allowance of white and dark meat—with hopes for a leg—squash, potato (urnip, boiled onions and giblet gray and cranberry sauce. Just a simple farm meal, ell stop there, for a slice of mince and a slice of pumpkin pie and some real country cheese, would about complete the men, with possibly a handfure the last filbert and the last family loke had both been cracked would elli wown from the table, unobserving the control of the carpeteovered sofa and had the last family loke had both been cracked would elli to possible, make my was to do one's Christmas mailing early is all right providing they do their part. Of course bundles can be better handled if received in plenty of time and most of us would not the hand any one of hording had to have the safe and the last family love had both of the fullity of procrastination. So it's just as well have no objection and on the other hand approve.

To sort of balance things I'd like to offer a little advice to the Post office Department if only it will be taken in the same spirit as we r supposed to advise at what hours mails are collected. How nearly the collector comes to these hours does not concern me, although I have seen him picking-up, as they call it, at hours somewhat at variance with the sign.

My grouch has to do with the supposed information that is offered by the printing or the ink marks on the cards. I have not had opportunity to make a tour of the street letter boxes but the few I have encountered have proved far from perfect. On some of them the whole business has been almost obliterated by the ravages of rain and snow or fog. Possibly the weather has not been entirely responsible and it may be that a person or a group of people have leaned against the box until the figures have been rubbed off. Perhaps there is still another cause of which I am not informed. But at any rate I have seen boxes where you couldn't decipher any of the printing, others where it was a sort or half and half and almost none where the information was entirely legible.

If you seek to learn at what hour the next collection is made you don't want to find half the figures there. The illumination is another thing, but that, of course, is no fault of the Post Office Department. They cannot be expected to place letter boxes under street lights or provide a flashlight for those who deposit mail in street boxes and are near-sighted. But they can keep the cards replenished and give us information that is not only fresh but on plainly marked cards that do not cause us to strain our eyes or turn away disgusted and ignorant of the hour of the impending collec-

I both could name.

But my wife and several other people of my acquaintance insisted that I was overweight. They said there were only two courses open to me. Either I must reduce or take out papers for alderman. So, feeling that the former even if but moderately successful, would be preferable to an ignominious and short-winded run among neighbors who would be sure to put the wrong interpretation upon my candidacy for office and probably end up by viewing me with ill-concealed alarm, I decided to diet.

Herewith I present my schedule.

men and women from various parts of the State. And how many people attended? Only thirty-one! Of these not more then 10 desired to speak, although the chairman declared that the commission was eager for statements on either side of the question. That was only one instance of the public's failure to display interest. At the hearing before the Public Utilities Commission on the investigation of the electric light company that serves Boston and suburbs only a handful appeared. The same was true of the hearing on the new rates of the gas company of Boston and vicinity.

of the gas company of Boston and vicinity.

As I view it there are those who file protests and who must be given a hearing just as every bill that is presented to the Legislature must be referred to a committee and a public hearing held. Whether these interested parties present only their personal views and are not supported or whether they have supporters who have not the time to take part in the official proceedings is open to discussion. Whatever the answer, it cannot be said that free speech is denied in Massachusetts. Certainly its traditions are still upheld. Where, however, is the voice of the people?

Mrs. Stephen Rice, representing the State Children's Commission, spoke of the need of revision of the Child Welfare Laws, in regard to child adoption, and to legal age for marriage. One law needing revision is that pertaining to 'he youth of 17 to 21 years of age being treated as adults, whereby they cannot use the Juvenile Court, or have any of its benefiting usages, for correction of influences and surroundings.

Mr. George O. Mansfield, the second speaker, had a good word for the work of the Children's Commission, as it will be a help in lessening the number of criminals the State Police have to encounter. Mr. Mansfield is a State detective in the Department of Public Safety, better known to many as the State Police. He told of the organization of this force in 1865, and showed pictures of the force in its infancy, on through the years to the present time. He gave his hearers a better idea of the way the State Police are focused at a given point to protect at fires, floods, mob,

N. C. SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

The Newton Center School Association held its first meeting of the year on Friday, Nov. 15, in Mason School Hall. The president, Mrs. Melville D. Liming, brought before the members the fact that a new junior high school will be started soon in Newton Center. She asked for a count of those interested in urging that a swimming pool be included in the plans. There was an enthusiastic response in favor of urging this inclusion. A petition to the Board of Aldermen, asking that in view of the need of more protection of children against traffic near the Schools of Newton, the request of Chief Burke for more men be granted was circulated for the signatures of those present. The music of the afternoon was provided by Mrs. Reginald Eastman who played several plano selections. Mrs. Margaret Stannard of the Garland School gave an interesting talk on the need for education for homemaking, emphasizing the fact that such training fitted the homemakers to live their lives fully and proportionately, taking an interest in and contributing to the interests of the Carland School gave a play, "The Childrein's Book Shelf" taken from "Child Life" and coached by Miss Burgess—Constance Crabtree, William Dimond, Helen McKey, Betty Tobin, and Richard Whittemore. The audience felt that Miss Burgess and the children were to be congratulated on the performance. All who could stay enjoyed the tea served by the refreshment committee. THE ELLIOT MEMORIAL

To the Editor of The Graphic:

I visited the Eliot Memorial on Sunday, for the first time in several years, and was deeply pained to find the conditions that exist. To speak plainly, the monument has been neglected and abused in a way that is a disgrace to Newton. A hole as large as a man's hand has been broken through the tablet. In spite of a warning sign rubbish, including a big tin pan, was much in evidence. The bounds of the reservation are not clearly defined, so that I could not tell whether the uncut grass was within or without the ground, but suffice to say that the place has the neglected, unkempt air of a back yard in a tenement district.

It is too late to say anything of the bad taste which was shown when the broken knobs on the railing were replaced with cement affairs which neither match nor harmonize with the stone of the structure; but I noticed that one of these objects was already chipped as though they were being used as targets by hoodlums. It is deplorable that this simple monument, erected fifty years ago through the public spirit of citizens, should be treated in this fashion. John Eliot's mission to the Indians, begun in Newton, was the one historic event of general significance which ever occurred in our city limits. Its importance is recognized in the design on our city seal. Eliot's converted Indians saved the lives of many colonists in the struggle that came soon after the time of his mission, if indeed they did not save the colony itself from destruction. It would have been a real grief to those who planned and secured the monument if they could have seen its present state. Is the historic sentiment so utterly lacking today that this simple memorial cannot be properly preserved?

He got away on a 27-yard jaunt to midfield where Pendergast tackled him. Furden took the ball outside for no gain and then hit left tackle for six yards. Elrod was smothered by Smith behind the line of scrimmage and Newton was forced to kick. Elrod's kick was over the goalline for one of the best punts of the day. Putting the ball in play on their 20-yard line Waltham started again. On the third play Pendergast got through tackle with good interference and was off for the Newton scaline 72 yards away. Krol gave a Newton secondary the knee in taking him out near mid-field and the foul was detected by an official. The ball was brought back and Waltham penalized 15 yards to their own 32-yard line. Pendergast's touchdown run was nullified and it was only a net gain of four yards but a first down. Krol scampered sixteen yards for another first down. A five-yard penalty for excessive time in putting the ball in play and small yardage on two rushes forced Waltham to kick. Although the orange and black team was forced to lower its colors in the annual Newton-Waltham football game last Saturday the orange and black waved triumphant in one way. For many years it has been the custom for followers of the visiting team to visit the playing field the night before the game and paint the goal posts with the school colors. Sometimes the over-exuberant rooters have succeeded and sometimes not. Last Friday night the presence of a policeman detailed to the Waltham field to prevent the painting of the goalposts failed to deter a small crew of Newtonites from their plan. The posts at one end of the field were given a new coat of paint before the expedition was discovered. Under cover of darkness they made good their escape.

ABOUT TOWN

By Edw. H. Powers

Only 3,000 persons were killed last month in the United States by automobile accidents. Possibly when the total per month of automobile fatalities reaches 10,000 the Federal Government will give this form of carnage some slight consideration, even though such vital matters as the tariff and prohibition enforcement monopolize most of the time of our Congressmen. Just so long as automobiles are manufactured capable of going 60, 70 and 80 miles an hour, just so long as reckless, selfish persons are permitted to operate such automobiles at express train speed on public highways, just so long as violators of traffic laws are not brought into courts by police officers, just so long as respectable, "law abiding" citizens bring iniuence to bear on policemen, politicians, law enforcement officials and jurymen to save offenders from getting penalized, just so long will the slaughter continue.

More laws can be made to regulate automobile traffic, safety campaigns can be conducted, newspapers can devote columns of space denouncing the ruthless killings, but the rapid increase in the number of victims of the "God of Speed" will go on while automobiles continue to be operated by those who like to "step on the gas."

The statute law of Massachusetts still orders that an automobile shall not be driven by a street intersection faster than eight miles an hour. Traffic officers bawl out motorists unless they hit a pace of 30 miles an hour past the busiest street intersections in crowded cities such as Boston. This is but one example where laws either are impracticable or are not being enforced.

Some laws which can be enforced and should be enforced but which receive little attention are those which relate to headlights, number plates relate to headlights, number plates and other equipment. Cars are allowed to be operated on our streets with headlights improperly focused or not illuminated; with number plates so covered with dust and grime as to be illegible; with defective brakes. If 3,000 persons were killed in one month in explosions, fires, train or boat wrecks, or if 3,000 persons died in one month because of some epidemic, this country would be quite excited. Wholesale killings by automobiles seem to be regarded, on the whole, with little concern.

The tracks of the Middlesex & Boston street railway on Washington street at Newton Corner are being removed. "Teddy" Demoy, the veteran track foreman of the M. & B. is in charge of this work. For over 30 years Mr. Demoy had been supervising the laying of tracks for this company and for the past couple of years he has been busily engaged in tearing up the tracks. It will not be long before the last line of the M. & B. on which electric cars are operated, the route from Lake street to Norumbega Park, will be serviced by busses. Complaints have been made about a chain which stretches across the entrance to Boyd Park on the Jackson road side. This chain sags to within several inches of the ground and persons entering the park after dark from the Jackson road side cannot see it. A number of persons have fallen over it and one man received a broken arm as a result. It is contended that a fence with a gate should replace the dangerous chain.

TAKE GREATER INTEREST IN

Dorothy Lee, Hempsted, popular novelist and lecturer, in a talk before a group of New York Society women interested in the study of "Trends in Women's Affairs" announced that after ten years of experimenting with their new-found leisure and opportunity in business, women are gradually returning to a greater interest than ever in the home and community.

Mrs. Hempsted, through her many years of association with women's movements, and the opportunity afforded by her lecture work in various parts of the country is exceedingly well informed on the subject of women's affairs. She is a strong advocate of the theory that changes, whether in style, custom or human conduct, are never abrupt, but the result of a gradual process of development. Mrs. Hempsted said in part: "Beginning with the war period, women in increasing numbers entered business. And what is more, they made good. For a time serious thinkers despaired of the future of the American home. However, during the past few years there has come a growing realization among women that even success in business does not hold for them the happiness of home life. But it is not the home life of a decade ago to which they are returning, for they are bringing with them a broader view of the basic problems affecting home atmosphere. They have taken a keener interest in community life and civic improvement. They read more and are well informed on such matters. The editor of a community paper in California recently informed me that his women subscribers had increased over two hundred per cent in the past year. To me this augurs for the future woman's greater influence in civic life, cleaner politics and fewer legislative mistakes."

The Mather Class

"The Necessity for Belief," in the series of lectures on the reconstruction of religion, was the topic under discussion at the regular meeting of the Mather Class last Sunday morning at the Newton Centre Woman's ing at the Newton Centre Woman's Club House.

Before beginning the lecture, Prof. Mather took up some questions of special Importance that were left over from last week. Since uranium spontaneously decomposes at a constant rate, why is there any uranium left in the world? In attempting to solve this puzzle, it is claimed that any given quantity of uranium will shrink one-half in 600,000,000 years. Then the half that is left will shrink a half in another 600,000,000 years. The earth is not old enough for all the uranium to work itself down to nothing. Uranium decomposes into lead, helium gas, and Gamma rays. By observing the relative quantities of lead and uranium in a given locality, an effort is sometimes made to guess the age of the earth. Some rocks are alleged to be 1½ million years old.

All this leads to the question why there should ever have been any the age of the earth. Some rocks are alleged to be 1½ million years old. All this leads to the question why there should ever have been any uranium at all on the earth, if the earth is so very young. It must have been constructed of materials from older planets, and, as long as the uranium has been decomposing since the very beginning, there should have been none at all left by the time the earth came to be put together. Prof. Mather made what effort he could to climb over this difficulty by allowing that perhaps there might somewhere be a creative force able to do a little reconstructing when things got too far gone. There's some comfort in that. The universe is not running down like a great machine that was wound up long ago and set going and is now unwinding. Rather it is highly probable, but still only a theory, that any given instant of time is like a point on a wheel going round and round. There is a breaking down and a building up. Maybe the newly discovered cosmic ray is mixed up somehow with the reconstruction of matter.

Turning to the subject for the day, "The Necessity for Belief," Prof.

how with the reconstruction of machine Turning to the subject for the day, "The Necessity for Belief," Prof. Mather said that religious ideas must be based on belief. Experience is the final court of certainty.

Somtimes people have been inclined, for the moment, to turn away from belief. They say that conduct counts more than belief. It is not what you believe but what you do and what you believe but what you do how you behave. This theory does not go far enough. Beliefs are the determining factors. Belief influences conduct. As a man thinketh, so is he. Belief is the wellspring of action.

conduct. As a man thinketh, so is he. Belief is the wellspring of action. Again, people get away from belief by saying that religion is a matter of faith, but faith is really a compound of belief and action. Reason is belief and something added. You cannot pears to be. You know that you cansay, "I am," and that is about all.

Certain things are real, but you cannot measure the realities with which religion deals. They are intangible and imponderable. Some eople think they are not real. Genuineness, however, does not depend on solidity. A counterfeit coin may be as solid and as heavy as a genuine one. A false friend may be a real friend his butcher and barber. He may weigh as much as a genuine friend. That's not the test of real friendship. It is the friendship of the false friend that is not real. The soundisseur of art can detect the spurious Rembrandt although the paint and canvas may be as good as a genuine Rembrandt. The test of the false is perfectly real as a physical object but it is unreal as a meaning. The physical object has a meaning.

object but it is unread and art.

The physical object has a meaning. Life has different meanings by reason of different influences. These influences have reality. They are part of our human nature. Belief says that intangible values are real. Science says that physical objects are real. Faith combines belief and action.

Faith starts on its quest without a triangle of the paul the Apostle, ad-

Faith combines benef and action.

Faith starts on its quest without a map, like Paul the Apostle, adventurous and resourceful to meet circumstances as they arise.

When Abraham set out for the promised land, he didn't know where he was going to sleep or where he was to pasture his herds, yet he did not hesitate to start without this knowledge. He had vision, but whatnot hesitate to start without this knowledge. He had vision, but whatever vision he had did not furnish detailed information about camp sites or pasture lands. He did have a vision of a goal, which afforded a prospect of certain things of great value. Therefore he went in that direction. It was an intelligent adventure. He used his own skill and experience to find the way. He was a master of desert lore.

The real function of religion is to pick the goals, determine values, and appraise purposes and results. You must first see a vision. Then you nust act. Science trains us to profit y experience. It provides the means reach the goal. Science does not

Why the world awards STUDEBAKER EIGHTS

Eleven world records for speed and endurance—and more American stock car records than all other makes combined are held by Studebaker Eights.

This year's Penrose Trophy Race to the summit of Pikes Peak was won in record time by a Studebaker President Eight -over a tortuous twisting roadway involving 154 breath-

The greatest record in the history of transportation established over a year ago by Studebaker's President Eight that traveled 30,000 miles in 26,326 consecutive minutes—still stands unchallenged. And this time-tried championship stamina is built into every Studebaker Eight—President, Commander or Dictator.

Studebaker is the world's largest builder of Eights because Studebaker Eights are brilliant and thrifty beyond anything motordom has known. Drive one of the new Studebaker Eights before committing yourself to any new car-Six or Eight.

The express from iverpool to London had made its first It was the privilege of the writer to meet the late "Tay Pay" O'Connor eleven years ago. The express from Liverpool to London had made its first stop at Crewe. Just as the train was about to start a tail, elderly man entered our coach, then apologized, saying, "Apparently I have entered the wrong coach. I belong in the coach behind this." He commented that he realized from our uniforms that we were Americans and he informed us of his identity. He was urged to travel in our coach and he consented. From Crewe to Rugby "Tay Pay" travelled with us and talked illuminatingly on the strained condition which then prevailed between England and freshonged, he invited us to meet him the following morning that he might escort our group through the Houses of Parliament and Westminster Abbey. He explained that Parliament was not in session. Needless to say, the invitation was gladly accepted.

Promptly at 9 the following morning we reached the main entrance to the famous building on the banks of the Structure he escorted us to the House of Lords and the House of Commons. He pointed out the chairs which were occupied by celebrities in both places, and the chairs which had been cocupied in past years by famous English and Irish statesmen such as Disraeli, Gladstone, Parnell, Redmond, Balfour, Chamberlin and others. Interesting anecdotes of these personages were told us by our host. Before leaving the buildings "Tay Pay" guided us to that exquisite Gothic gem, Saint Stephen's Chaple.

Thence he escorted us to Westminster Abbey where he showed us the many interesting features of that famous church and the tombs of noted persons whose remains repose theer. The brillancy, the courtesy of our unusual guide made a deep impression on us, and we appreciated our good fortune in having met him on the train.

Heathcote Announces Platform— Knocks Unnamed City Officials

Platform Includes Two Platoons in Fire Department; More Care for War Widows, and Service Dept.

Former Alderman George M. Heathcote of Neshobe road, Waban, has issued his first public statement in regard to the coming election on Dec. 10th at which time he will be one of four candidates for Mayor. In his statement he explained his reasons for becoming a candidate and states his platform.

"Eriends and voters of the City of "The Newton Legion was the only "The Newton Legion" was the only "The Newton Legion was the only "The Newton Legion is platform.

"Friends and voters of the City of Newton have urged me to become a candidate for Mayor. I have waited hoping that a candidate would come forth actuated and prompted by the same ideals that I fought for during the nine years that I served at City Hall as an alderman.

"There I had fought off single handed the forces that sought constantly to engulf Mayor Childs and when I left he said to me personally 'that he would have to watch his step more carefully than ever before.' That is the best endorsement anyone could give me.

"My candidacy is a direct and inequivocal challenge to a few who believe the mayor's chair can be auctioned off to the highest bidder. I firmly and sincerely believe that there are enough honest, God-fearing and law-abiding people of Newton who will vote to keep Newton so that a man can be elected there who has had the necessary training and experience in municipal affairs, is possessed of courage to take a definite stand for what he believes is right and has a controlling desire to serve all the citizens all the time. It is to these people I appeal for support in the most critical period the city of Newton has ever seen.

"Other pressing questions are assessments which are known to be very seen."

"The Newton Legion was the only body in the state to vote against a war bonus for its veterans. Are we too be the only city in the State with the same to vote to ket only city in the State with out the two-platoon? I do not believe in the fremen do not like living apart from the fire families that there are plenty of others that take their places.'

"If elected mayor I should respect the opinion of the City Solicitor and not secretly carry around in my pocket for ten months a copy of a letter from the City Solicitor to the School Committee ruling that the School Ordinates ruling that the screen and at the same time do all in my power to prevent a $100 increase for the poorest paid teachers, going into effect.

"In our family there are six children and five are in the public schools my most critical period the city of New ton has ever seen.

"Other pressing questions are assessments which are known to be very high in Newton. Millions and millions of dollars in re-assessments have been added the last few years to keep the tax rate down. Water rates are high. Taxes must come down but I believe that with the utmost scruting in spending city money and making sure the city gets a dollar's worth of value for every dollar spent that our taxes and assessments can both be reduced and money still remain to treat our city employees as fairly as neighboring cities and towns and rebuild the miles of worn out and patched city streets.

"The most important part of any business or city is the human element. Unless our City employees are well paid and cared for they will never give the city the best that is in them.

"I do not believe in the theory that you would not pay a man $2.25 a day if you could get him for $2.00. I firmly believe in the old bible theory propounded so many years ago

RECORDS BROKEN

All October production records in the history of the Chevrolet Motor Company were broken last month with an output of 85,915 cars and trucks, it was announced at the central offices in Detroit, Wednesday.

Compared with the output of 65,052 units for October of last year, the 1929 October manufacturing volume shows a gain of more than 20,000 units. It indicates an increase of more than 900 cars and trucks a day over the showing for the corresponding month of a year ago.

Chevrolet's record October performance brings output up to 1,275,778 units as of November dirst. This is more cars than Chevrolet has ever built in an entire year and is nearly five times the number of any other six cylinder car built in an entire year.

Due to the continued high demand. Chevrolet plants are working on the biggest November schedule on record. An indication of the volume of business that Chevrolet is doing nationally is seen in the report for the last ten days of October which shows a gain of 49 per cent over the corresponding period of last year. The figures for the period are 36,640 for the last ten days of this October as compared with 24,538 for the corresponding period of 1928.

THE PREFERENTIAL METHOD

At the city election December 10 the preferential method of At the city election becember 10 the preferential method of voting will be followed for all offices for which there are more than three candidates. Newton is the only city in the State that has this method of voting. The City of Gloucester had it for a few years but later changed to another method. An attempt was made in Newton to abolish it but it was defeated largely through the friends of Mayor Childs who evidently thought it through the friends of Mayor Childs who evidently thought it was an attempt to defeat him politically.

It might be well to explain how the different cities in the state nominate and elect their city officials.

Following the adoption of the direct primary about 1911 for the nomination of party candidates for state offices most of the cities of the state carried the plan into their city primary and at the succeeding election the candidates bore the party designation of Republican or Democrat and at the present time a number of cities still adhere to that method. Many cities however, disliked the introduction of partisan politics and a knockout primary, so called, has been adopted. This primary allows as many candidates as wish to be voted for at a primary election with only the two highest candidates allowed to have their names printed on the official ballot at the succeeding election. Boston has still another method of allowing all candidates to be Boston has still another method of allowing all candidates to be voted for at the regular election with no previous primary.

Newton had the party primary for some years but it was noticed that regardless of the outcome of the primary the defeated candidates ran at the regular election as independents. Under these circumstances it seemed a waste of money to hold a primary. After some study of the preferential system as carried out in numerous Western cities and in many municipalities in New Jersey the legislature allowed Newton to adopt this method by referendum vote. In effect under this system the voter has the option of exercising first and second choices among the list of candidates, thereby combining the primary and regular elections at one

This method allows the majority party to divide its vote between two or more candidates without allowing the minority to tween two or more candidates without allowing the minority to win the election through a split in the vote of the majority. To illustrate, take a city of 7000 voters of which the majority party controls 4000 and the minority 3000. With one candidate for office, the majority party would win by 1000 votes. If there were two candidates of the majority, each having about half the total vote, it will be seen that the minority candidate with 3000 votes would win the election. The preferential plan, by allowing the voters of the majority party to exercise a first and a second choice, thereby controls the outcome of the election. This is done through a provision of the law that if the leading candidate does not have a clear majority of all the votes cast for that office the first and second choices for all candidates shall be added together and the candidate having a plurality shall be added together and the candidate having a plurality of such combined votes is elected.

While the theory of this method of election seems without a flaw as a matter of practical politics the voters of Newton have rarely exercised the privilege of a second or third choice. It is of course possible that in the event of a close vote between the two leading candidates the second choice votes received by the second candidate in the first choice votes may put him in first place of the combined total vote. It is possible but hardly probable that this condition should come to pass.

What Newton ought to have is some method by which the voters of one portion of the city could be informed for whom they should vote in other parts of the city and which seems only possible by return to the party primary.

FOR A BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

The city of Newton is a business involving an expenditure of over four million dollars a year. It goes without question that the administration of a business of that magnitude should be handled by men of executive ability and who are accustomed to large affairs. The voters at the coming city election have the opportunity to elect such a man to the office of mayor as Alderman Sinclair Weeks, who, in addition to his knowledge of city affairs thru seven years as a member of the city government, is president of the well known Reed and Barton Company, and is a director in other large businesses. None of the other candidates have such a fine business record as Mr. Weeks and we believe that his candidacy will make a strong appeal to the tax payers of Newton.

The Newton public officers' election committee was formed at Chestnut Hill on November 13th apparently to spend a lot of money without being amenable to the law which restricts the amount of money that any one candidate can spend. Further it is understood that the gasoline interests spent a thousand dollars for a midnight banquet in Dover to pep up forty democrats to help in our present city election. Why?

"It is the unanimous vote of the Newton Men's Educational Club that the Newton schools have outgrown the need of a county convention."

Superintendent of Schools U. G. PARAMOUNT-NEWTON

More than any motion picture heretofore made by Gloria Swanson, her latest production, "The Trespasser," written and directed by Edmund Goulding, is anticipated by the cinema fans.

"The Trespasser," which comes to the Paramount theatre next Sunday, is a sensational drama of modern life, with the upper social strata of Chicago as its setting.

The production is particularly noteworthy because it marks Miss Swanson's audible picture debut. In addition to speaking dialogue throughout the picture, she sings two songs, one a ballad style melody "Love," written for her by Mr. Goulding and the other a standard work of wide popularity.
Miss Swanson selected Goulding's story, "The Trespasser," only after long and careful consideration and it is regarded as an ideal speaking vehicle. The leading man is Robert Ames. Others are Purnell Pratt,

Rickshaw Drawing Not

Heavy Physical Labor Adolph Basler, director of the phy stological institute of the Sun Yat Sen university in Canton, China, recently made some interesting observations on the rate of work performed by a coolie drawing a rickshaw. This form of running is peculiar in that the force exerted is practically all forward. The arms are held by the shafts of the vehicle, and since the vehicle's center of gravity is over the axle, the coolie does not have to exert any up-ward force. The work he does is consequently the same as if he were pull-ing a weight by a cord running over a pulley.

It was found that the rickshaw coole ran from four to six miles an hour, consuming during fast locomotion about one-tenth of a horse power—the same, that is, as if he were drawing five and a half pounds one foot in each second. This is over and above the amount of work the coolie would do while running at the same pace without pulling the loaded ve-The expenditure of energy is much less than that of the oars in a university boat race.

Deadly White Ants

Deadly White Ants

The United States exports fron telegraph poles to South Africa. Wood is abundant and cheaper, but it would be quickly destroyed by the powerful jaws of the terrible white ants. Let a horse or man break a leg and fall in the path of army ants, and in a few hours only a skeleton is left, according to Prof. J. Arthur Thomson in "Outline of Science."

Bunyan's Flute

While Join Bunyan, who wrote Pitgrim's Progress, was in prison his jail ors heard music coming from his cell. They decided to take away his instrument, but the music censed as they drew near the cell, and they could find nothing to show how the music was fnade. From time to time the music sounded, but only Bunyan and his book were found. What had happened was that Bunyan had made a flute from a loose rail of his stool, and on hearing the goaler's step he would slip it back into its place and pore over his book.

Probable Age of Earth

The Naval observatory says that it is believed that the solar system has existed in approximately its present form for many millions of years: but from our present knowledge on this subject we cannot state what may have been its condition at any definite period in the remote past, such as 500,000,000 years ago. A re-cent estimate, found in "Astronomy," by Russell, Dugan and Stewart, gives the earth's age as possibly some four or five billion years, but this is subject to future revision if other factors in the problem become known. It is supposed that the day was formerly somewhat shorter, and the moon somewhat nearer the earth than at Noise May Grow A great deal of the noise which as-sails our ears in a busy city, for instance, is not only due to the constant ly increasing use of machinery but be-cause the type of building construction now used tends to prolong and trans mit noises. A bare plastered wall, for example, reflects noises better than a mirror reflects light. If you clap your hands together in a bare plastered room, more than 95 per cent of the noise will be reflected from the wall. The sound of the hand clap will, there-fore, persist for several seconds. This phenomenon of reverberation causes noises to be built up and retained "alive" in a room in such a way that their intensity is actually increased.

American "Penny Press" The History of American Journal ism states that the precursor of the penny press was the Daily Evening Transcript, established in Boston July 24, 1830, by Lynde M. Walter. While this paper was not sold on the streets for one penny, it was quoted at the extremely low rate of $4 per annum Probably the first daily that was ac tually sold for one cent was the Cent of Philadelphia, published in the same year as the Daily Evening Transcript in Boston. In New York city the idea was first conceived by Dr. Horatio David Shepard.

Love-Making Added to

Arts Lost to Mankind "Love-making is fast becoming a lost art. It is being practiced with about as much enthusiasm as a hungry man pounces upon a cheloite russe; with as much finesse as a butcher carves a steak," says Paul Mirand, author. "Love, the sublime passion, the most intense, absorbing and tender of all the emotions is, as a result, in danger of dying a slow, reluctant death.

"It is a great tragedy, but we must face it. We have neither the time nor the place for love-making. Love-making requires leisure and an appropriate setting, and in this modern day we have neither. It is true that love—a fundamental emotion of mankind—can never exactly be done to death. Men and women will always fall in-and out-of love; but it is regrettable that love, so divine, and love-making, so delightful, should become such negligible quantities in our daily lives. "Love-making once used to be a great art—one which was conducted with artistry, talent, skill and finesse. Today not only men, but women also, are too busy making money to take time to make love."

"then I should say that you're the very man for the job."

Looked Like It The car was unusually crowded, and an inoffensive-looking little man accidentally stepped upon another's toe.

"Paid" for Their Seats
When Mine. Netlie Melba once was on tour of Australia, some of the leading citizens in a little town she visited decided there was no reason why they should pay to hear her sing, says an article in London Til-Bits And so, dressed in their hest, they walked to the hall, then slipped around to the side of the building, where they found a ladder leading up to the roof of the hall.

Up they climbed, and placed themselves around an open skylight, through which they heard the conert perfectly. While it was in progress the caretaker remembered he had left the ladder out, so he put it away in a shed. After the concert the ladder out, so he put it away in a shed. After the concert the party on the roof discovered that their "vsti" had disappeared. There was a 25-foot drop, and none of them, in their Sunday hest, cared to risk it. So they were forced to sit on the roof in a biting wind, until about 4:00 a. m. they attracted the attention of a pollecman, who rescued them.

At the recent Board meeting of the Newton Centre Woman's Club, it was voted that the legislative meetings should be open to all women of Newton. These meetings will be held in January and February for the study of current legislative measures. Dates and leaders will be announced later, and there will be no charge for this course which should be of interest to a great many women. Mrs. Wenona O. Perkins is chairman of this committee on Legislature, and she is assisted by Mrs. Emile A. Barrier, Mrs. Charles Wood Bond, Mrs. A. Maxwell Stone, Mrs. Charles T. Bartlett, Mrs. Henry Schoenfield, and Mrs. Brackett K. Thorogood.

Miss Elizabeth Bartlett, chairman of the Christmas Health Seals committee, announces once more that she and her committee will undertake to mail the seals to every person in Newton Centre during the week following Thanksgiving. It is through this committee that the Newton Centre Woman's Club contributed its share to this worthwhile charity.

Mrs. Henry J. Ide, chairman of the Community Service committee, announces that a Volunteer Motor Corps has been formed to be called upon for emergencies in connection with the social activities of the Club.

In the interests of the coming election in Newton, this same committee has arranged for Mr. Sinclair Weeks, candidate for Mayor, to speak in the Newton Centre Woman's Clubhouse, at 8.00 p. m. on Wednesday, December 4th. This meeting will be advertised during the week previous by a most unique scheme of chain-calling over the telephone of one member to another, as their name appears in the Club Year Book.

RECENT EVENTS

Woman's Club of Newton Highlands

At the last meeting of the Woman's Club of Newton Highlands on November 19th, much interest was evinced by various announcements. A request was made for signatures to the petition which is issued by the Anti-Steel Trap League; which must be in the hands of that organization not later than December 4th, in order that it may be acted upon by the General Court.

The development of printing, and the dissemination of knowledge through the medium of the press, was discussed by Mr. Norman Alexander Hall, who told of the establishment of the first printing press in Cambridge in 1638. Shortly after this, there was a period of nine years when no printing was permitted outside of Cambridge,—thus the beginning of the practice of censorship.

Interesting side lights on representative authors of the last two centuries were given, and several of the modern books were reviewed in detail. Mr. Hall gave a list of the ten "best sellers" of the first twenty-five years of the present century which are,—"Main Street", "If Winter Comes", "The Rosary", "The Shelk", "Inside the Cup", "Mr. Brittling Sees It Through", "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch", "So Big", "Pollyanna", and "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse." He also gave a synoposis of what constitutes a "best seller."

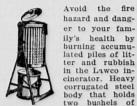

Deploring the tendency to read crash, and as a help to intelligent thinking and reading, he recommended Abbe Dimnet's "The Art of Thinking" and Professor Roger's latest book "The Fine Art of Reading."

At the regular business meeting of the Newton Centre Woman's Club on Friday, November 22nd, the president, Mrs. Walter Hartstone, introduced Mrs. Phister Cowin, president of the Newton Federation, who spoke briefly on what the Newton Federation means. The speaker for the afternoon, Burges Johnson, Litt. D., was introduced by Mrs. E. Raye Speare, chairman of the Literature committee. Dr. Johnson has been Editor and Assistant Editor of several magazines and periodicals, was formerly Professor at Vassar College and is now Professor of English, and also Director of Public Relations at Syracuse University. His subject was, "Were You Ever Inspired?" He said that he was not lecturing, but just reminiscing, and from the wealth of his own intimate experiences, he reproduced pictures lecturing, but just reminiscing, and from the wealth of his own intimate experiences, he reproduced pictures of many of our best known authors, among them, Mr. Elbert Hubbard, Mr. Howells, Mr. Clemens, Mrs. Deland, Mrs. Humphrey Ward and O. Anderson is chairman.

The exhibition of tables set and decorated for Thanksgiving by Mrs. William J. Freethy and members of the Art committee, attracted a great deal of interest. One table was covered with a cloth of damask which has been in the family of Almira Bridge, a direct descendant of John Bridge who gave land for Harvard College, for three generations. In the centre of the table was an antique pewter Damascocene tray, surrounded by candlesticks of Sheffield silver. At

A second table was covered with a gold damask cloth which came from an old home on Chestnut street. The centerpiece was of fruit, and all gold service was used. The glass was made by a Club member, Mrs. Sarah R. Comer.

The table which had been set with articles from the Five and Ten Centstore was most effective. Its centerpiece was a squash scooped out and filled with bittersweet and snowballs. The china, glass and table service were all in green.

Mrs. Thomas J. THE FIRST BRICK HOUSE IN AMERICA

The home of William Penn, built around the year 1685, was the first house to be constructed of brick in America. This house was entirely characteristic of Penn himself. Every detail of it was methodically planned, as was the whole town of Pennysivania that he laid out.

It is reassuring to know that capable hands will relieve you of all respon-sibility when the time comes. Our service is most complete and within the means of all.

ONE THING AND ANOTHER

By L. D. G. Bentley

HOW ABOUT IT?

We are near the end of another year, One more page of the calendar to tear, One more month and 1930 will be here, And we'll all be older when it's over.

Twenty-odd days for gifts we needs must buy, Barely time enough however hard we try, In and out of stores—ever on the fly, And we'll all be weary when it's over.

Fuss and fume and worry over things Money goes so fast seems it must have wings, World is all wrapping paper, seals and strings And we'll all be rushing till it's over.

Just the same I think you will agree, Come what may there's fun for you and me, Couldn't get along without the Christ-

What with an excise tax, gasoline tax, registration fees and this and that, together with repairs, garage charges, etc., it is good to see automobile owners given a break once in a while. It might be referred to as a sort of Christmas present—this new road along the Charles river—and surely it is a practical one.

surely it is a practical one.

Newton drivers, especially those who travel to and from Boston regularly, tell me that the Soldiers Field road as it is called is a great boon as far as they are concerned. I heard last week Wednesday at the office of the Metropolitan District Commission that the road was to be opened the following day and so when a friend of mine the next morning offered to drive me to Boston I was able to return the favor with a good tip. The latter consisted of enlightening him as to the opening of the new river road. Naturally he wanted to try it.

Naturally he wanted to try it.

We crossed the river at Faneuil and swung along by the Watertown Arsenal and then over the street that leads to Brighton and then took the left turn and skirted the river over that always popular stretch by the driving club's race track. Proceeding on that side of the river we struck the new road and passing under Cottage Farm bridge hit Bay State road and then Beacon street straight into town. It was good to avoid Governor square and the heavy traffic on the Cambridge side of the Charles.

Ever since that ride I have been bridge side of the Charles.

Ever since that ride I have been endeavoring to learn how many were availing themselves of the latest stretch of boulevard and as far as I can find out it is taking a lot of through traffic off Commonwealth avenue. The rush-hour congestion in the late afternoon at Cottage Farm has been reduced materially. been reduced materially.

It is good to know that the Metropolitan District Commission abandoned the idea of a narrow reservation in the middle of the new road. This was at first planned as a place to install lighting poles, but before the finishing touches were put on the reservation was removed and now there is no obstruction between curbings. The idea of these reservations, such as Cambridge has adopted on Massachusetts av. doesn't seem to work so well. Wide roads that are free and clear are needed. The Soldiers Field Road looks like an excellent beginning. If our planning division is given a chance it will, I am sure, produce a lot more benefits.

Frequently somebody says, "I get a great kick out of Soandso on the radio", mentioning the name of a well known announcer or the man who introduces this or that program. There are a number who go on the air are popular and have established a loyal following. It all proves the power of the voice. A man may be attractive speaker and not so prepossessing in other respects. And you might place a most imposing gentleman at the microphone and find he was minus as a broadcaster.

It so happened that the other day I had luncheon with a man whose voice readers of this column have frequently heard. Since it was a private affair I do not feel that I have a right to reveal his name. What he said will be no less interesting, I am sure. Of course I couldn't restrain myself and began at once to ask all kinds of questions. He was good-natured about it, seemed to expect to be quizzed and not averse to talking shop.

"Don't apologize", said he, "I am as

"Don't apologize", said he, "I am as keenly interested as those who listenin. If I wasn't enthusiastic about my work I don't think I'd be the least entertaining if it is true what the radio audience write in their letters to the studio."

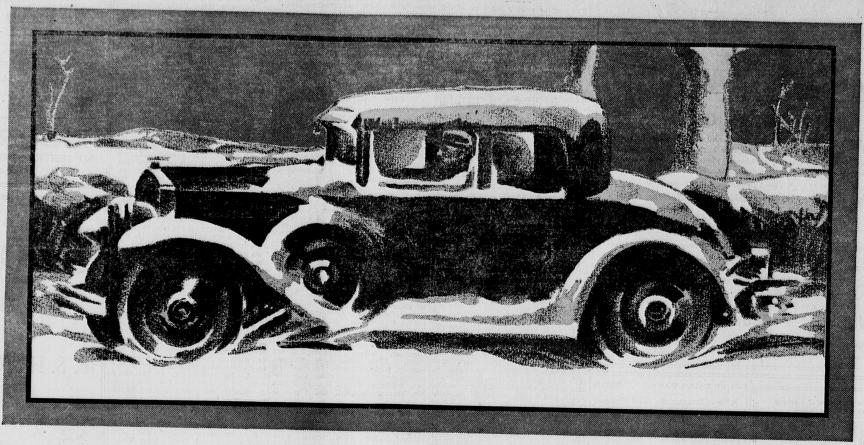

"Do you get a kick yourself out of the knowledge that thousands and thousands, if not millions, are hearing your voice?", I asked.

thousands, if not millions, are hearing your voice?", I asked.

"Never once think of it", he replied. "I'm all for what I'm doing at the moment. If it's a ball game of some kind I talk as I would to a friend that might be sitting next to me. If the ocasion calls for a wise-crack I make it because the actual happening has struck me as funny. It is all perfectly natural, nothing staged. Far the it from me to try to talk down to listeners. That's an absurb attitude. Just be yourself and they'll enjoy you if they like you and if they don't like you why they can shut you off. You mustn't think yourself a great man when you get before the 'mike' or your audience will get on to that and you'll have few if any friends.

"You were speaking of what kick I got. Well, that biggest kick was when a wounded veteran told me that he and his pals in the hospital used to laugh at some of my stuff at certain i heachell and football games. When I "Never once think of it", he replied "I'm all for what I'm doing at he moment If it's a ball game of some kind I talk as I would to a friend the ocasion calls for a wise-crack if the ocasion of the ocasion calls for a wise-crack if the ocasion calls for a wise-crack if the ocasion calls for a wise-crack if the ocasion of the ocasion calls for a wise-crack if the ocasion of the ocasion calls for a wise-crack if the ocasion of the ocasion calls for a wise-crack if the ocasion of the ocasion calls for a wise-crack if the ocasion of the ocasion calls for a wise-crack if the ocasion of the ocasion calls for a wise-crack if the ocasion of the ocasion of the ocasion calls for a wise-crack if the ocasion of the ocasion calls for a wise-crack if the oca
